ABLEST DETECTIVES HAVE BEEN ENGAGED

To Ferret Out Evidence of Police Blackmail and Laxity in New York City Department

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—With the appointment of William J. Flynn, chief of the local secret service bureau as chief of the aldermanic investigating committee came the news today that a corps of the ablest detectives in the country will aid Flynn in ferreting out evidence of police blackmail. Some of the secret service men have proved their ability in tracking counterfeiters and other criminals. The investigating committee expects to meet tomorrow for purposes of further organization.

Counsel for Police Lieutenant Becker, now behind the bars on charges of instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal was busy today preparing defense of the licensed lieutenant. Becker's lawyer, it is learned, expects to show that he was the victim of a gambler's plot, headed by "Bald Jack" Rose and the men who have supported Rose's "confession."

Rose and these men, counsel will assert, all will have sufficient reasons to seek revenge on Becker for his activities against them. It will be argued further by counsel that a plot to murder Rosenthal was concocted three months before he was actually killed but the plan was abandoned at the instance of certain East Side gamblers. It will be contended that Rosenthal was offered $10,000 to go to Canada but that when he demanded $25,000 it was decided to make away with him.

Subpoenas probably will be issued today by the district attorney for the appearance of hundreds of property used as disorderly houses and gambling dens before the special grand jury investigating police graft that has cropped out in the Rosenthal murder case. Neither wealth nor position will spare the owners from being subpoenaed.

MILFORD SUSPECT NOT IDENTIFIED AS "GYP THE BLOOD"

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The belief of Sheriff Cuddeback of Pike county, Penn., that he had won the $2500 reward offered for the capture of "Gyp the Blood" and the hope of the New York authorities that he was right were simultaneously dashed by detectives of the district attorney's office who visited Milford, Penn., yesterday and failed to identify Sheriff Cuddeback's prisoner as the man wanted.

The man was released and the ripple of interest which the report caused had subsided last night, leaving the whereabouts of "Gyp" and "Lefty Louie," both of whom are indicted in the Rosenthal murder, as much of a mystery as ever.

So far as police headquarters here are concerned, no report was made officially regarding Sheriff Cuddeback's capture. The sheriff telephoned to headquarters early yesterday that he thought he had "Gyp" under arrest at Milford, but distinct communication could not be had over the telephone for some reason, and the request was made here that Sheriff Cuddeback report his capture formally by telegram.

This request was not complied with, and the police dropped the matter. The district attorney's office, however, which was also notified, sent two of its men to Milford, only to prove the sheriff's mistake.

The detectives are believed to be returning to New York, satisfied not only that the suspect taken and later released was the wrong man, but that neither of the fugitives are in that section. The large reward offered for the two men is expected to lead to a number of similar mistaken arrests in various sections, but eventually the authorities hope to nab them.

In the absence of Dist. Atty. Whitman on his week-end visit to Manchester, Vt., the principal activity at his office yesterday was that of his assistant, William De Ford, who has been assigned to take charge of the presentation to the police graft cases to Justice Goff in the extraordinary session of the criminal branch of the supreme court beginning Sept. 2.

Mr. De Ford spent practically all of the day in his office preparing the information to lay before Justice Goff, who will act as a committing magistrate.

The neighbors had complained to him about the boisterous actions of the couple. They were taken to the police station where they were charged with being drunk. While waiting to be heard in court this morning the woman collapsed and would have fallen to the floor if it had not been for the fact that officers ran to her assistance and carried her downstairs when she was revived. Later when brought into court a fine of $4 was imposed. The son was sentenced to four months in jail but appealed.

Other Offenders

Alexander J. Kennedy, charged with being drunk, was given a suspended sentence of three months in jail and placed on probation for six months. John Graham was given a suspended sentence of four months in jail and placed on probation for six months and Thomas E. McCutney was placed in the custody of the probation officer for a term of six months. William Broadbent was given a direct sentence of four months in jail.

DEATHS

DAVIS—Lafayette D. Davis, an old resident of Lowell, Mass., passed away at 800 E. Franklin street, at 1212, at his wife, daughter and son in California and a sister and three brothers in the east. He was a passenger conductor on the Southern Pacific railroad at the time of his death and had been an old employee of the Boston & Maine railroad. His body was brought here for burial by his son-in-law, R. Parker, and laid to rest by the side of his son, Lafayette P. Jr. George W. Hawley was the undertaker in charge and Rev. J. Clement Wilson held services at the grave.

LENNON—Patrick Lennon, a well known resident, died yesterday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Donnell, 218 East Merrimack street.

MCINTYRE—Thomas McIntyre, aged 41 years, died Sunday night at his late home, 3 in the rear of 134 South street. He leaves a wife, daughter and two daughters. Misses Mary and Annie McIntyre, two brothers, Peter and Robert of England and two sisters, Misses Mary and Alice McIntyre of England.

MATRIMONIAL

A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at St. Joseph's church, when Mr. Armand Vohl and Miss Rosanna Morley were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at a nuptial mass, celebrated at 7 o'clock by Rev. Jerome Dias, O. M. I., and the witnesses were Messrs. Jean Morin and Jean Baptiste Messers. At the close of the mass the bride party repaired to the home of Mr. J. B. Harwood, 508 Suffolk street, where a dainty repast was served. This was followed by a brief reception during which excellent music was rendered by the four quartet, Messrs. Charles Morin, Armand Vohl, Edmond Contre and Fred Paquette. The happy couple left on the 11:05 o'clock train for New York. On their return Thursday a reception will be tendered them at 75 Tremont street and the newly wedded couple will make their home at 508 Suffolk street. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. Damase Duvalon of Montreal and Mr. David Morin of Manchester.

GAMBLERS FINED IN POLICE COURT

Other Cases Heard in Court Today

A detail of police officers visited the lodging house at 151 Merrimack street about 11 o'clock Saturday night and placed 11 men under arrest for being present at a game. The police received a number of complaints relative to this house where it is alleged there is considerable gambling going on. Accordingly, Saturday night Sgt. McLaughlin and Ryan, Inspectors Samuels and Alexander McLaughlin visited the place and arrested Marie Delisle, George Fong, Peter Minasta, Peter Contre, Daniel Shea, William Burns, Alfred Melancon, John Verdon, Pierre Desjardins, Patrick Delmore and Edgar Delart.

In police court this morning the men were charged with being present at a game and after a general plea of guilty had been made by J. Joseph Hennessy, their counsel, the court ordered each to pay a fine of $5.

Case Continued

Kalman Bernstein was arrested by Inspector John P. Linton of the Boston police department in Boston Saturday night for the Lowell police, on a warrant charging him with being an unlicensed itinerant vendor. It is alleged that Bernstein had conducted a sample jewelry store in the Fiske block in Central street without having a state or local license to do business. Bernstein was brought back to this city and later released under bail. The case was to have been heard in police court this morning but at the request of counsel for the defendant it was continued until Sept. 19.

Collapsed in Court

Elizabeth Kerwin, an elderly woman who is blind, and her son, John P. Kerwin, were arrested early this morning at their home in Wall street, Belvidere, by Patrolman Bielecky, after some of

THE LOWELL COTTON MILL PLANTS LOEB IS TO TELL

Will Not Shut Down THIS SUMMER

The cotton mills will not indulge in a vacation this summer. The mill agents, and a majority of the operatives, too, allow that the four weeks of idleness due to the strike is enough for one season. One mill agent said to a reporter for The Sun today that he thought it would not be fair to operatives to announce a vacation shutdown of two weeks. "So far as business is concerned," he said, "there is no occasion for a shutdown, yet I have seen times when business was better at this season of the year. The fact of the matter is it would not be fair to the operatives to subject them to two weeks more of enforced idleness. A majority of the operatives who were forced into idleness because of the strike were not in sympathy with the strike movement and a great many of them were not prepared and were not desirous of leaving at that time. A month of idleness throws the average operative back quite a few steps and it takes him some time to catch up. I have tested the sentiment in our mills and I find that the help would prefer to keep on working. They do not want the usual summer vacation and many of them have told me that it would be a downright hardship at this time. We have good operatives in Lowell, the best in the country, and we will do our best to keep them happy and contented."

Will Close Labor Day

The mill operatives will have their week-end holiday extended, so to speak. There will be nothing doing in the mills on Monday, Labor day, and when the mills close at noon on Saturday the operatives will be free lanes until Tuesday morning.

Golden West Not Attractive

The Sun reporter talked with another mill man who talked about the class of help in the mills today as compared to a year ago, or before the strike. The reporter had been told by several mill men, including agents, that a lot of "good help" had left Lowell during the time of the strike and had not returned. The mill man with whom the reporter talked today, said: "It is true that many mill operatives left Lowell during the strike and some of them have remained away. It is also true that quite a number of them, especially men, left their work in the mills after the strike was called off."

"We were in somewhat of a quandary to understand it and we were anxious, too, because we did not want our operatives to leave the city. Well, we looked about for a cause and we connected with it. We found that western railroads had representatives here who were making inroads on our help, especially the foreign element. Of course there was nothing we could do about it but to await results and we didn't have very long to wait."

"Several weeks ago the men who had gone away began to wend their way homeward and they had some strange tales to tell of their adventures. Most of them are back in the mills and some of those who have been reinstated have sent money to their companions in the west to pay their way home. They were paid, their claim, from $1.60 to $2.50 a day, but they can save more money here on $9 or $10 a week. At least that is what they tell us. All we know of our own knowledge is that they went away and were glad to come back. The golden west did not prove as attractive as they thought and they seem to think that Lowell is a pretty good place after all.

Workman's Compensation Act

At all of the mills visited by the reporter good and the mill seemed to be quite optimistic as to the future. Among other things the reporter inquired about the workman's compensation act. It had been stated that the corporations didn't like it very well, looking upon it as an extra burden. Not one mill man interviewed by The Sun reporter had a word to say against the new act. In fact one prominent mill man said he thought it was the best thing that ever happened. He looks upon it as a protection to the operative and operator as well. He would be willing, he said, to supply statistics to show that it is of mutual benefit to servant and master. "Of course," he said, "it will bear down a little hard on Massachusetts until the act has been made national. It will mean a small increase in the price of goods in Massachusetts and that will slightly handicap our chances for competition. I feel, however, that the act has sufficient merit to appeal to all states in the union and there is no doubt in my mind but what it will become a national act and in a comparatively short time."

Centralizing the Power

The Massachusetts corporation has taken its second step in the centralization of its mill power by abandoning the eight boilers in the old boiler house in Bridge street and swinging over to the new power plant that was put in operation some few months ago. So far as the centralization of its power is concerned the Massachusetts has but one more step to take and that is to abandon the old boiler house of the Prescott and speed the machinery there with power from the new plant. This third step will be taken within a short time and then the scheme of power centralization will have been completed.

Will Use More Electricity

A little more than half of the Massachusetts plant is operated and lighted by electricity at the present time and it is only a question of time when electricity will be the sole agent. The company has just installed a new 750 kilowatt steam turbine of the Parsons type and made by the General Electric Co., and steps are now being taken to light the entire plant by electricity. The management allows that electric lights are more healthful than gas lights, hence the proposed change.

Plenty of Cotton on Hand

Most of the mills have a good supply of cotton on hand and a peek into the big cotton storehouse of the Massachusetts in Bridge street and the Prescott storehouse will convince one that there is some cotton in Lowell. A new supply will come in about October and there will be room for it at that time. The big storehouse in Bridge street was made to hold 48,000 bales of cotton, a year's supply. On account of the saving in head room and also on account of the ease and cheapness of construction the mushroom or girderless type of interior floor construction was adopted and, as one of the workmen said, there is nothing in the big building but room. The total height from finished floor to finished floor is only eight feet. The great weight on the columns in the lower stories would have necessitated such large reinforced concrete columns that much valuable floor space would be used up. Consequently, structural steel columns, encased in concrete, were adopted. The floors are granolithic finish placed integral with the structural floor slab. The roofing is of standard five-ply tar and gravel roof. The windows throughout have metal frames with wire glass.

Before building the new storehouse in Bridge street, the Massachusetts abandoned its cotton in a building owned by the company in Tanager street and in a portion of the old Boston & Maine station. The company sold the old building to David Ziskind, and in future all of its cotton will be stored in the new storehouse.

that the hearing on the water question will amount to very much.

The most important business before the board, so far as is known at this time, will be drawing of six traverse jurors to serve at the September sitting of the superior criminal court in this city.

MRS. GERVAIS

WELL KNOWN WOMAN PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

Mrs. Victoria Gervais, wife of Mr. Herminas Gervais, passed away at St. John's hospital at 8:10 last night after a very brief illness. Mrs. Gervais was taken from her home to the hospital Friday where an operation was performed, and it was expected that she would recover. Saturday and yesterday she appeared to be greatly improved, but last evening weakness set in and to her husband, who was at her bedside, and was most attentive to her during her illness she expressed fear that she would not recover.

Mrs. Gervais was a woman of beautiful character, a devoted wife, and one of the most lovable persons to meet. Always of a most pleasant disposition, glad to meet and make new friends and never forgetting her old acquaintances, she endeavored herself to all who knew her. She was possessed of a very charitable disposition and many who were in want were aided by her. Her great care was her home, and despite the advice of her husband she insisted on giving her personal attention to the cares and duties of the house.

She was a prominent member of Notre Dame de Lourdes parish and took an important part in all church work. Those who know her, greatly regret her departure and extend to her bereaved husband, who was most devoted to her, their heartfelt sympathy. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Prudhomme. She is survived by a husband, three sisters: Mrs. Adolphe Audette, Mrs. Fred Gilman and Miss Laura Prudhomme, as well as two brothers, Joseph and Charles Prudhomme of this city. She lived at 222 Chalmers street.

The funeral will take place Wednesday morning and high mass of requiem will be celebrated at Notre Dame de Lourdes church at 9 o'clock. Undertaker: Archambault in charge.

NARROW ESCAPE

YOUNG MAN AND WOMAN NEARLY DROWNED

A young gentleman and lady, whose names could not be learned, experienced a narrow escape from drowning yesterday afternoon, when a canoe in which they were paddling on the Merrimack river in the vicinity of the Paxtonlock house, overturned. After a great deal of difficulty the young man succeeded in rescuing the girl and himself and neither suffered any ill effects further than a ducking.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 26.—

What Col. Roosevelt knew about the case of John D. Archbold's alleged $100,000 contribution to the republican campaign fund in 1904, what President Roosevelt said to the late E. H. Harriman and what Mr. Harriman said to Col. Roosevelt about Harriman's $260,000 contribution are stories concerning which William T. Loeb, Jr., formerly Roosevelt's private secretary, is prepared to testify before the senate committee investigating campaign contributions according to an announcement made here today by Roosevelt. Col. Roosevelt said he was greatly pleased at the prospect of Mr. Loeb taking the stand before the committee. "While under no circumstances would I myself ever have asked Loeb to testify," Roosevelt declared, "I am more than pleased that the committee chooses to do so."

MAN INHALED GAS BUT MAY RECOVER

Found Unconscious and Taken to Hospital

John Watson, a middle aged man residing at 188 Tilden street, attempted to end his life this morning by inhaling illuminating gas. Fortunately he was discovered by his wife before life was extinct and was hurried to the Lowell hospital where he received treatment.

Watson had been in a nervous condition lately. This morning he intended to go to his work and arose shortly before six o'clock. Shortly afterwards his wife arose and when she entered the kitchen she found him behind the gas stove with one end of a tube connected with the stove and the other end in his mouth.

The man was in an unconscious condition and was hurried to the Lowell hospital where he received treatment and the physicians think that he will recover.

FUNERALS

LEAHEY—The obsequies of Mr. Patrick Leahey took place this forenoon and were attended by a very large concourse of the relatives and friends of the deceased. The corpse left the home of his nephew, Dr. P. J. Bagley, at Lombard street at 8 o'clock and at 8:15 a high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Patrick's church by Rev. Fr. Curran. The choir rendered the following music: "Requiem" being sung by Miss Alice Murphy and Mrs. James Morris. The attendance at this service was especially large, showing the esteem in which Mr. Leahey was held among his friends and acquaintances. The burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery where Rev. Fr. Curran officiated and was assisted by the grave-diggers were John Baker, Daniel Poirer, Thomas Mahoney, Daniel Redding, James Lecher, Patrick Lyons, Peter Bagley and Mrs. Patrick Barker. The following were present as a delegation from Division 1, A. O. H.: James Lyons, Patrick Beardon, Terrence Gray and Joseph O'Connell. The only eulogy was read by Mr. Patrick's nephew, Daniel Murphy, Patrick Beardon, John Hart and John Beagan. Among the floral tributes placed upon the grave were: Large pailow, inscribed "At Rest" from Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bagley; scarf of white, Dr. P. J. Bagley; large star inscribed "Godfather" John J. Lyons of O'Neill, Ontario; large cross on base inscribed "Grief," Mr. and Mrs. Michael Nestor; spray of asters, Mrs. John Devlin; sprays of asters, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Barker and family; Mr. and Mrs. Mooney and daughter; Mamie; wreath on base inscribed "At Rest," Mr. Patrick Lyons and family; wreath on base inscribed "Grief," Mr. and Mrs. James Carmichael. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Dr. P. J. Bagley and Charles H. Molloy was the undertaker.

ANNUAL OUTING

OF MEMBERS OF COURT ST. PAUL, C. O. F.

The first annual outing of the members of Court St. Paul, C. O. F., was held yesterday afternoon at Bagley's farm, Orono, and was largely attended. The weather was ideal for such an event and many took advantage to spend the day among the beautiful pines of the farm of Mr. Danle.

A very appetizing dinner was served in the open air, the place of resistance being roast pig and delicious liquid refreshments were passed.

Immediately after the meal a varied musical program was rendered and in the latter part of the afternoon a number of amusing races were run off, the participants being the small boys, ranging in age from 2 to 8 years, who had accompanied their parents.

The event was in the hands of Mr. Arthur Lavale, who was ably assisted by a large committee and the affair was pronounced the best ever. It was quite late when the party broke up, all congratulating the organizers for the success of the affair.

William R. Hearst in London in which Hearst urged him and Mr. Archbold and Senator Penrose to tell "the full story." Roosevelt had this to say: "My attitude to the Standard Oil Co. was precisely the same before as after election, as any one can find out by turning to the files of the newspapers at the time of the passage of the bureau of corporations bill before I was nominated or elected, when the Standard Oil opposed the law and I got it through by making public the telegrams of the Standard Oil people opposing the law and showing their activity."

"As for any connection of mine with the Standard Oil people before or after election any human being is welcome to make anything public about it of any sort, kind or description and if I had appeared before the committee today I should have testified to every feature of it of which I have any recollection or knowledge."

THE O. M. I. CADETS ARE READY FOR CAMP

Found Unconscious and Taken to Hospital Tomorrow

The O. M. I. Cadets will go to camp tomorrow. Milligan's grove is an ideal place for the annual outing, and 150 boys will sleep under the tents tomorrow night. It is going to be the greatest outing the young soldiers ever had, and during the week there will be thousands of visitors to the grove. A great program to entertain the Cadets has been arranged and every preparation has been made for their comfort. Dr. William Collins will go to camp with the boys and there will be four trained nurses on duty night and day. The meals served will be most substantial and the boys will have a chance to enjoy swimming, racing, boating and baseball.

Mr. Humphrey O'Sullivan will be the guest of the organization Thursday and a great reception is planned for him, which will be attended by people from Lowell, Billerica, Tewksbury and Wilmington. The routine for the tour of camp is as follows:

At 6:15, first call; 7, reveille; 7:05, assembly for setting up exercises and morning prayer; 7:30, morning meal; 8, police; 8:10, drill; 9:45, recall; 10, swimming; 12, mess; 4:30, dress parade; evening prayer; 5:30, mess; 8:30, tattoo; 9:15, call to quarters; 9:30, taps.

WOMAN SHOT AS SHE WAS ENTERING DEPARTMENT STORE

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—In sight of hundreds of persons going to work, Frank Motis twice shot and probably fatally wounded Miss Clara Musk as she was entering a State street department store early today. Motis then attempted to take his own life, but police officers arrested him and from the only words he uttered it was learned that jealousy is given as the cause of the shooting.

POST OFFICES WILL BE CLOSED ON SUNDAYS HEREAFTER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—All first and second class postoffices will be closed on Sundays as a result of one provision of the new postal appropriation bill passed by congress and signed by President Taft.

Every important city in the United States is affected. Hereafter only special delivery letters will pass through on that day and no mail will be placed in lock boxes.

Post offices in several cities have been closed Sundays heretofore. The postmaster general has permitted that under a regulation where it was evident that local sentiment demanded it. The closing is now compelled by law.

THUMB FRACTURED

A man named Whalen fell from a horse in Worthen street at 1:45 o'clock this afternoon and in his fall fractured his right thumb. He was removed to St. John's hospital in the ambulance.

THE DETROIT GRAFT CASES TO BE THOROUGHLY PROBED

It Is Said That the "Game"
Has Been Going on for Ten Years or More

DETROIT, Aug. 26.—With the arraignment in police court today of 17 aldermen and former Council Committee Clerk Edward R. Schreier, self-confessed receiver of bribe money, Prosecuting Attorney Sheppard hopes to be able to probe into past doings of the city council and determine if possible, whether so-called councilmanic grafting has been a constant practice during the past decade.

All of the men to be arraigned today with the exception of Schreier, were previously arrested on charges of either accepting or promising to accept bribes for municipal favors. The latest warrant alleged that the 17 men conspired to defraud the city. A long confession which Schreier recently made to the prosecutor and in which he is said to have implicated many aldermen and former city officials, is claimed to be the basis for the latest move against the accused members of the council. After the arraignment proceedings are disposed of, it is expected that the preliminary examination of Alderman Tosey, charged with receiving bribe money will be commenced. Detective Brennan, who declares that he, while posing as a Washburn railroad official, bribed the alderman, will probably be the principal witness for the prosecution.

RAILWAYS FEAR MINIMUM WAGE

Brief of the 52 Railroads
Filed

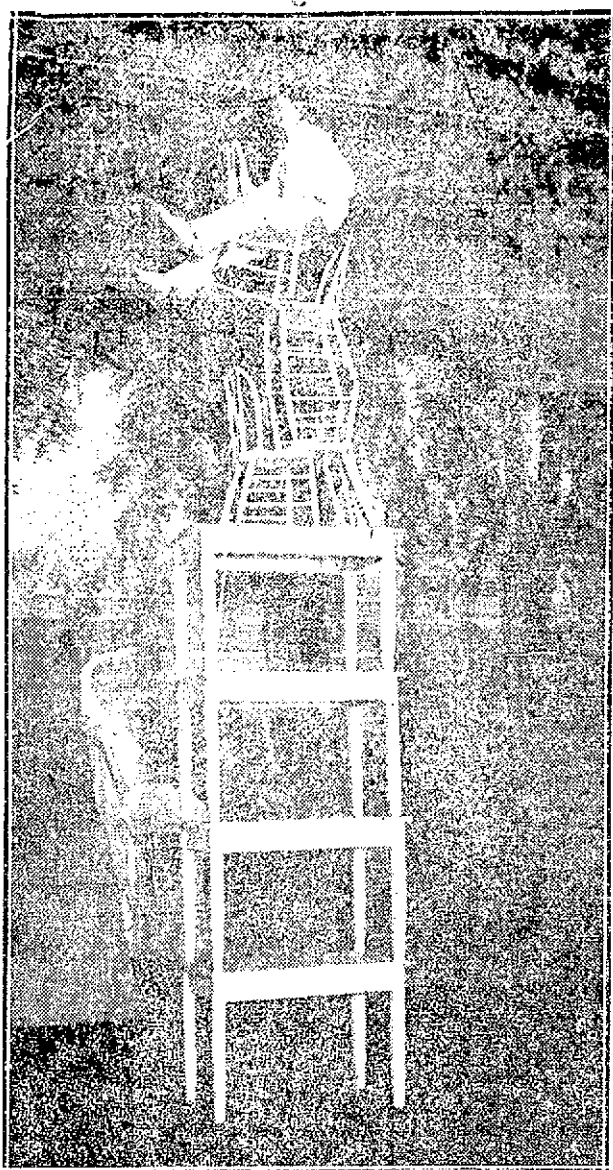

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The brief of the 52 railroads in the eastern territory in answer to the demands of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers for increased pay aggregating $7,000,000 annually, has just been filed with the arbitration commission, which heard evidence for two weeks at Manhattan Beach recently, and which is to decide the controversy. The commission, of which Oscar S. Straus is chairman, will meet again about Sept. 10.

The brief for the railroads was prepared by William McKinley Luncheon, who represented the 52 railroads at the hearings. It argues that standardization of rates of pay and rules of service is impracticable, and inevitable that railroad employees are better paid than labor in other occupations, that engineers as a class receive higher wages than any other class of railroad employees.

It adds that there has been no change in the conditions of service since the last adjustment, and no circumstances now which there should be a change in rules of service or rates of pay so as to increase the aggregate compensation paid engineers, that the demands of the engineers, relative to the exclusive operation of electric motive power are unjust and contrary to public policy, and that the financial situation is such that wages cannot be increased without serious effect upon all the roads and actual insolvency of some, ultimately resulting in placing the greater part of the burden upon that part of the public whose annual compensation is far below that now received by the engineers.

Standardization as applied to wages, says Mr. Luncheon, "should mean a definite rate of pay for a definitely prescribed amount of work of similar character. Standardization as applied to rules of service should mean the application of uniform rules to similar operating conditions. The principle is one of consideration only in those cases where its application recognizes the fundamental doctrine that each worker shall receive as much for his skill and service as any other worker

MANUEL DE FRA,
The Fearless Wonder at Lakewood Park This Week.

In the same class receives for similar skill and like service.

"Unfortunately standardization means to trade unions a minimum rate of pay, and as so interpreted is subject to the criticism that it fails to distinguish between men of different ability, taking away from the employee the incentive to exert himself beyond the unobtainable minimum, and thus stifles competition of labor with labor, thereby increasing the cost of production.

"It is possible to impose the burden of increased wages upon the railroad companies temporarily, but in the ultimate analysis the burden will be shifted to the public. We can not hope to pay paid for a limited time only. If we adopt a policy that prevents the railroad companies from earning a surplus in order to take care of the additions and betterments that do not necessarily require earnings, constant and deplete the railroads of a bank of credit, we are merely putting off the evil day and passing on to the future generations the shortcomings of the present."

Small accounts collected and appreciated at the Old Lowell National Bank.

We Extend a Special Invitation to the Members of the Y. M. C. A.

To call and inspect our new store and see the wonderful transformation that has taken place in their old quarters.

A. E. O'HEIR & COMPANY

Rev. Dr. Morgan. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

CLARK—The funeral services of Samuel S. Clark were held Saturday afternoon from the home of his son, Joseph A. Clark, 10 East Street, at 10 o'clock. A large mass of requiem will be sung at the Immaculate Conception church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery. J. P. O'Donnell & Sons in charge.

JARDIN—The funeral of Mary Jardin took place Saturday afternoon from the home of her parents, 31 Anthony's church, at 4 o'clock. Services were held. Rev. Manuel J. Veltus officiating. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery. Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons in charge.

McKENZIE—The funeral of the late Mrs. Martha McKenzie, an esteemed resident of St. Patrick's parish, took place this morning at 9 o'clock from the home of her brother, Richard W. McKenzie, 32 Crawford Street, Pawtucket, R.I., and was largely attended. The cortege proceeded to St. Patrick's church where at 9 o'clock a mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Timothy Callahan. The choir under the direction of Mr. Michael J. Johnson sang the Gregorian mass, the solos being sustained by Mrs. James Morris and Miss Alice E. Murphy. Mr. Johnson presided at the organ. Among the beautiful floral tributes were a large yellow mixture, "Mother," from Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walworth, and a large spray from Mr. and Mrs. John Walworth. The bearers were Patrick O'Brien, Patrick Sullivan, Thomas Gray, William Conn, John Walworth and Michael Conn. At the grave Rev. Fr. Callahan read the committal prayers and the burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. P. O'Donnell & Sons.

LEONARD—Mrs. Mary Leonard died August 22, in Springfield. She is survived by a son, Dr. William Leonard, of Springfield. The funeral took place Saturday afternoon from the Northern station, this city. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Monsignor O'Brien. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Peter Davey.

DUCHESE—The funeral of Miss Annie Duchese took place this morning from her home, 5 rear of 101 High Street. Solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at 9 o'clock at St. Joseph's church by Rev. Fr. Baron. O. M. L., assisted by Rev. Henri Watelle, O. M. L., as sub-deacon. The choir was under the direction of Mr. Frank Gaudin. Mrs. Joseph A. Bernard presiding at the organ. The bearers were Peter Rogers, Joseph Bolchini, Edward Leblanc, Sydney Rousseau, Theodore Tullard and Arthur Perreault. Among the many floral tributes were: Sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings and family; Sydney Rousseau, Mr. and Mrs. Dumont and family; George Leblanc and family; Dr. C. S. Dwyer; wreath inscribed "Family," Mr. and Mrs. Dumont and family; pillow inscribed "Annie," Du-chese family; bouquets, Mrs. Boardman and Mrs. A. Bernier. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. Rev. Henri Watelle, O. M. L., reading the requiem, the floral tributes at the grave. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

CONLON—The funeral of Bartholomew Conlon took place this morning at 9 o'clock from his late home, 1 Everett Street, Pawtucket, R.I., and was largely attended. A funeral high mass was celebrated at the Immaculate Conception church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Owen McQuade, O. M. L. The Gregorian chant was sung by the choir, the soloists were Edward Shea and Charles Smith, and Mrs. Hugh Walker was the organist. The burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery where Rev. Fr. McQuade, O. M. L., read the prayers at the grave. The bearers were Messrs. Thos. Patrick, John, Michael and Bartlett Conlon, all nephews of the deceased and Martin Kane, a cousin. Among the floral offerings were the following: Large pillow inscribed "Duchese," from his wife; a large pillow inscribed "Mother," from the children; large mound of flowers from Elizabeth Gilchrist and Mae Flynn; cross on base from Mr. O'Brien and daughter; spray, sympathy of Mary Woods and Margaret Bourke; sheaf of wheat from a friend. The funeral was in charge of Undertaker Charles H. Molloy.

CONDUCTOR FOGG WAS BADLY HURT

His Head Came in Contact With Pole

200TH ANNIVERSARY OF HILLSIDE CHURCH

Observed With Special Service Yesterday

Albert Fogg, aged 26 years of Wakefield, N. H., who is employed as a conductor by the Bay State Street Railway Co., was badly injured last night, when his head struck one of the trolley poles at Belle Grove on the Lowell and Lawrence division. No one on the car saw the accident and the first intimation the passengers had that anything was wrong was when the conductor, lurched forward and fell into the car.

Fogg was walking along the running board of the car at the time and there is little doubt that he leaned too far off the running board and when his head came in contact with the pole he was thrown back into the car.

When picked up by passengers it was found that his head was badly mangled. A physician who was on the car at the time attended to Fogg. He was later placed aboard a Lowell-bound car and the ambulance station notified. The ambulance met the car at Merrimack square and the injured man was taken to St. John's hospital, where it was found he was suffering from concussion of the brain.

Inquiry at St. John's hospital at the time of going to press this afternoon brought forth the information that Conductor Fogg was resting comfortably and that in all probability he will recover.

106 YEARS OLD WOMAN OBSERVED ANNIVERSARY OF HER BIRTH TODAY

WORCESTER, Aug. 26.—Surrounded by every comfort in the pretty home of Mrs. Annie H. Vane at 8 Boynton street, Worcester, Mrs. Louisa Waterman Carpenter today quietly observed the 106th anniversary of her birth.

Mrs. Carpenter was born in the old Waterman homestead at Old Warwick, R. I., on Aug. 6, 1806, the daughter of John R. and Isabella Warner Waterman. She was one of eight children, but one, other of whom, Mrs. Isabella W. Coburn, is now living. Mrs. Coburn is now 94 years old and is a resident of Boston, Cal.

SILAS W. COBURN

The service was conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. E. E. Currier, who was assisted by Rev. John Welch, of Wilmington, Ill. and formerly of Braintree. At the conclusion of the service, Deacon Silas R. Coburn read a very interesting paper on the church and its design since its inception a little over 200 years ago.

POSTAL BILL RAISES THE SALARIES OF MANY OPERATIVES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The new post office appropriation act which became effective Saturday will reward many thousands of faithful employees with an increase of pay. Postmaster-General Hitchcock spent several hours last night and today morning in effecting the numerous changes authorized by the act.

Before the ink had time to dry on the president's signature to the act, the orders were being issued to carry out the proposed promotions and increases into effect. One thing accomplished today was to order the expenditure of nearly $1,000,000 in promoting the clerks and carriers of first and second class post offices and assistant postmasters.

These promotions, which numbered about 7000, became effective July 1, notwithstanding that the bill was not enacted until Aug. 1. The postmaster-general could have made these promotions effective today had he believed that the employees had earned the increases and made them effective from the first of the fiscal year in accordance with his policy of liberal compensation to efficient workers. In order to make these promotions it was necessary to notify the postmasters at 231 post offices and dispatch nearly 10,000 letters.

In addition to promoting the employees mentioned, the postmaster-general authorized all miscellaneous expenses of post offices, amounting to about $350,000. It having been necessary to withhold authority for such expenditures pending the passage of the bill, one section of the appropriation act provides that no order for first or second class post office shall be kept open on Sunday for the delivery of ordinary mail and every postmaster affected was immediately notified of this change in the law.

The postmaster-general announced that the promotion of railway mail clerks would be made on Sept. 1, and the promotion of rural letter carriers on Sept. 30. This delay is due to the restrictive wording of the appropriation, which does not authorize the promotions until those dates.

REV. PAUL DRAKE DELIVERED AN ADDRESS ON THE SOUTH COMMON

Rev. Paul Harris Drake, formerly of the Universalist church in Beverly, was the speaker at an inter-denominational protest meeting held on the South common, this city, yesterday afternoon. There were about a thousand people present and they all listened attentively to the address of the speaker.

In the course of his remarks he briefly rehearsed the causes of the Lawrence strike.

Mr. Drake said he had talked with the two men and said they were well educated and as intelligent gentlemen as he ever had the pleasure to meet.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Frederick L. Carpenter of Gloucester pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging the larceny of $50,000 when given a hearing before Judge Dana in the superior court today. He was held in $50,000 bonds for trial.

Carpenter is charged with disposing of thirty American Bell Telephone 1900 bonds belonging to the estate of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jennie S. Goolin, who died at Carpenter's home in 1909. A warrant was issued in February, 1911, but Carpenter disappeared. Carpenter was located at Lake Massabesic, near Manchester, N. H., last Friday and arrested.

NAPOLEON'S IDEAL WOMAN

The great Napoleon, in response to a question once asked by a lady, replied: "My ideal woman is not the beautiful society belle or the butterfly of fashion, but the pattern who reaches middle age in complete preservation of health, with stalwart children by her side."

Thousands of middle-aged American women today owe their health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that famous remedy for female ills, which has carried more women safely through the natural changes of her life than any other remedy the world has ever known. If you are ill, it will pay you to try it.

The Carleton Sisters who hail from her and are described as one of the best sister teams in vaudeville come to us with a batch of new songs, some clever dancing and a franks full of handsome wardrobe that have never been the envy of the female part of the audience. Billy Evans, the Jolly Tar, has a rich fund of jokes and should make himself solid with the patrons during the week's run. Harrington & Lens are retained and will be heard in new songs while the pictures will as usual be of the best.

At Lakeview Theatre
Coming to this theatre this evening, and remaining for the week only, with matinees daily, Robinson's "Pictorial World Tours of the Western Islands, including views of Spain, Portugal and Italy. This is one of the most unique programs arranged at this park. The season, and should be educational as well as extremely interesting. These tours have been shown in this country's largest cities, and come well recommended.

These views are brought out in beautiful colors as near natural life as possible. Wherever they have been shown, they have brought forth much comment. These slides have been shown and used in lectures in the foremost colleges of America. This will be a rare opportunity for the people of Lowell to see something never before shown in this part of the country. Matinees at 2 o'clock and at 8 p. m. especially.

Lakeview Dance Hall
"Variety"—That's what the management of the hall believes in and so for this week he will provide a number of new features that will compare favorably with those that have been furnished the patrons of the popular place in the past. Novelty dances, new songs by Miss Ethel Knowlton, new music by Kitzel's famous orchestra, and other innovations, that must be enjoyed to be appreciated. The show as in the past is in the pink of condition and the beautiful surroundings lend much to the enjoyment of an evening at the hall.

The Kasha
No expense has been spared to make the Kasha the ideal amusement resort of the kind in Massachusetts. The management a half a century ago has not only seen to it that the place is of Lowell, but also an excellent place where others may well enjoy a night of fun and merriment. A grand time and there program Wednesday night.

AVIATOR WINS HARD BATTLE BY SHOWING GREAT SKILL

McGee Caught in Bad Air Current—Machine Stands Still Over Boston Harbor

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—(Byline for his life, 1909) set in the air over Boston harbor, Jack McGee, the Pawtucket aviator, yesterday had an experience that he will not forget and the memory of which will thrill his many admirers. The thousands of people who gathered on the beach and the thousands who watched his flight from the water were not disappointed. McGee's machine was driven down to the water by a bad air current.

The young man, who a few days ago created a sensation by his flight over Revere beach, is fortunate in having rare nerve and remarkable control. For the skill with which he manipulated his plane and the fact that his engine never missed a beat all that saved him from disaster.

It was not long ago that McGee was taking lessons at the Stevens aviation field and when notified that he could take a little flyer on his own hook, he not only left the ground and the field behind but made a visit to Revere beach, a flight sufficient for a veteran aviator.

Warned of Bad Conditions
McGee's Revere flight was a triumph for him, and seeking words to conquer he quietly made plans to fly from Saugus to Newport, it being his intention to show the folks back home that he was a real flyer.

Securing a letter from Mayor Fitzgerald, addressed to Hon. Patrick J. Boyle, Newport's executive, he completed his plans early yesterday and after going over his machine awaited a good opportunity to leave the field at Saugus.

Though advised that the time was not propitious on account of the wind, the youthful flyer climbed into his seat at 3:15 in the afternoon and gave the word to the mechanics to turn over the propellers. The engine picked up immediately and with a wave of his hand he was off. The machine took the air quickly and after a circuit of the grounds, McGee headed toward Weymouth to cross the harbor.

He had barely got over the water when he felt the full force of the wind, but with all power on he drove the machine head-on, but could not seem to make any headway. The plane shivered under the force of the engine and the kind, and McGee tried to turn back. In that he failed, and though realizing that he was not making much, if any, headway, it was not until he looked down toward the water that he found he was drifting.

It did not take him long to realize that his engine was helpless against the force of the wind and it was then that the needle on the water saw for the first time an airplane practically standing still in the air. To spectators it appeared as if the machine were about to crash and just every second they expected to see it come crashing to the surface of the harbor.

Life Saved by Skill

For many minutes McGee fought to make headway but it was soon apparent that he was caught in a bad stretch of air. His first look after taking his position in his drifting faster and it was not long before he began to pass over the field and towards the bay. Looking down he saw, Boston Light and it was not until he was a considerable distance beyond the famous beacon that he saw any chance of making land.

By hard work with the planes and the engine working steadily, he succeeded in heading his machine due west and in a short time passed over the field at Saugus. Instead of descending then he thought that he might be able to continue and he looked for the Blue Hill observatory. The land climbed steadily and when nearing the Blue Hill was at least 100 feet up.

It was then getting dark and the air much more difficult. So much time had been lost in the desperate struggle over the harbor that McGee was forced to decide quickly whether he would come down or chance a night trip with no harbor in the other end to welcome him and afford him a place to land.

Land at Readville Track

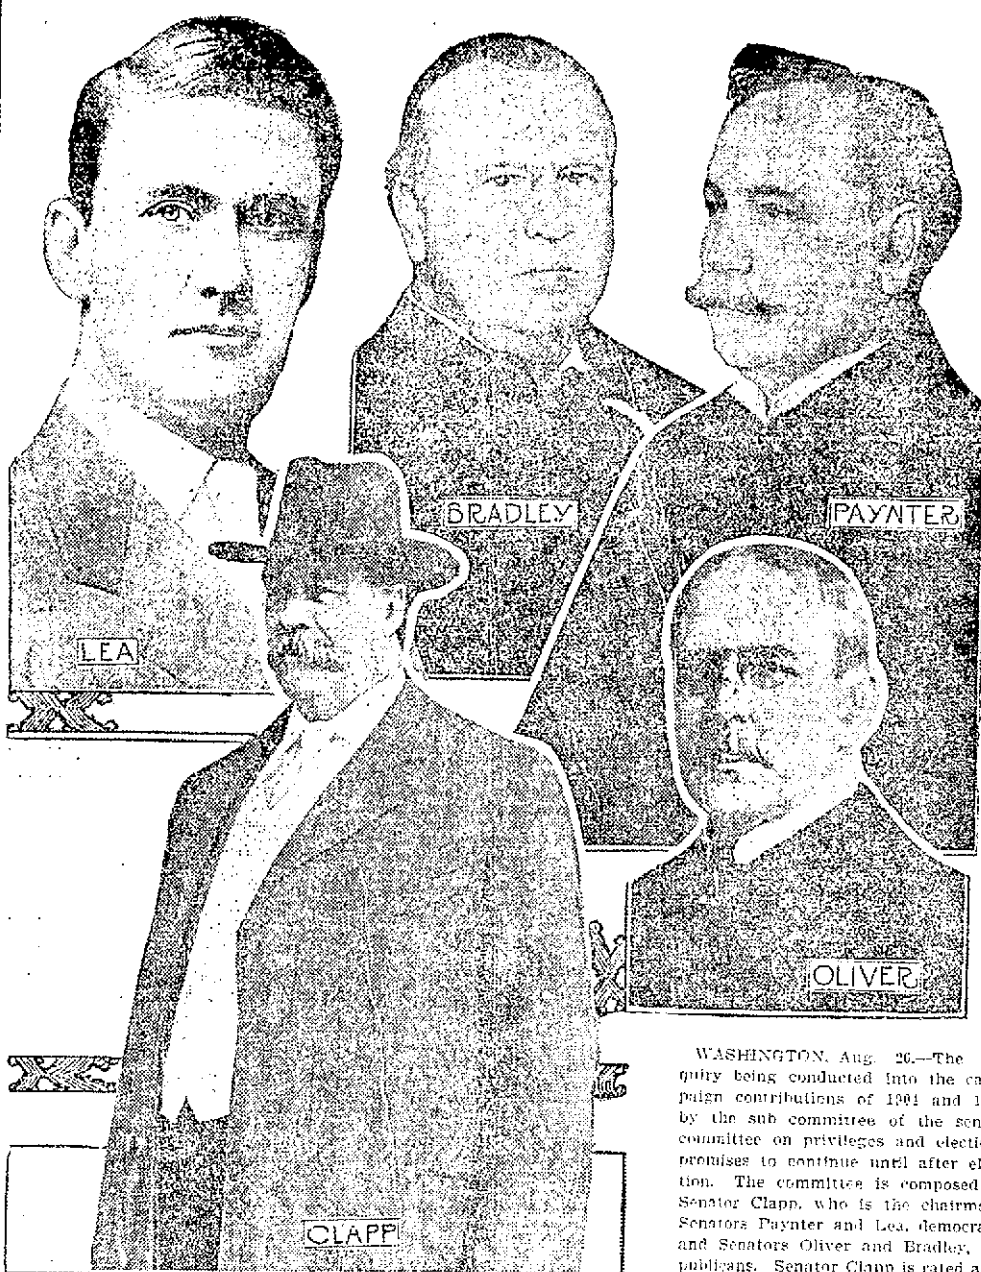

McGee remembered the race track at Readville and decided to make a landing there. Shutting off his power, he descended until he was within a few hundred feet of the ground, and getting his bearings, he circled the famous track once and then alighted in the oval inside the track at 6:50 p. m. The landing was perfect and machine and operator did not even get a jolt.

The aviator's appearance high above the track had attracted the attention of the trotting horsemen gathered there for the grand circuit meeting this week, and on reaching the ground he was surrounded by many who insisted that he prove the machine to be a safe craft.

He went immediately to the Readville hotel and said that both he and his machine had come through all right and that, barring the cold and his disappointment at not having been able to continue he had enjoyed his flight. In regard to the harbor portion of the trip he had little to say, remarking, "I don't care to think about that. It was impossible to look down and see myself driven backward by the wind."

If the weather is favorable this morning McGee will continue his flight to Newport, and with good air should set there inside of two hours.

Members of the Senate Committee Which is Investigating the Campaign Contributions

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The inquiry being conducted into the campaign contributions of 1901 and 1908 by the sub committee of the senate committee on privileges and elections promises to continue until after election. The committee is composed of Senator Clapp, who is the chairman; Senators Paynter and Lea, democrats, and Senators Oliver and Bradley, republicans. Senator Clapp is rated as a Roosevelt supporter.

Salute the Snack!

A snack is a grown-up nibble; less than a meal, more than a bite.

It fits in at picnics and fishing trips; helps entertain the unexpected visitor.

It takes two to make a snack—KELLOGG'S TOASTED WHEAT BISCUIT and almost anything else.

The biscuit and milk or cream—the original snack;

The biscuit and sardines—snappy and savory;

The biscuit and cheese,—cooked cheese or just cheese—fine;

The biscuit and fruit—delicious;

The biscuit and eggs—a regular stand-by;

The biscuit smothered in creamed codfish—nothing tastier.

You've the makin's for a snack in your cupboard or pantry right now—if KELLOGG'S BISCUIT is there. 12c a box. Ask your grocer.

Montenegro Makes War on Turkey; King Nicholas Calls Out the Army

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 26.—To be imminent. The two nations are yielding to popular pressure. King Nicholas, already acting as though war had been declared on Montenegro, has named a chief of staff, and a general, and the news of the combination have been a source of war against Turkey is believed very heavy.

GIRLS DROWNED

MOTOR BOAT WAS HIT BY A STEAMER

FAIRHAVEN, Vt., Aug. 26.—Two young women, Miss Mary Whitman of Troy, N. Y., and Miss Margaret Richter of New York city, were drowned in Lake Umbagog Saturday night, when a motorboat in which they were riding with two young men companions collided with the lake steamer A. B. Cook.

The young men, William Basile and Robert Edwards of this town, made a desperate attempt to save their companions. They succeeded in freeing Miss Whitman from beneath the boat, but not until she was nearly exhausted. After assisting her to hang on to the upturned bottom of the boat, they tried to free Miss Richter, who was more firmly held beneath the craft. At a moment when they thought they had nearly succeeded, the boat sank.

Miss Richter was carried to the location with her, and Miss Whitman, with little strength left, was helpless without support. Basile and Edwards could do no more for Miss Richter, for they succeeded in rescuing Miss Whitman and started to take her to shore. After they had gone some distance they found they were carrying a lifeless burden.

It was raining Saturday night and the motorboat party had umbrellas up for protection. It is believed this fact accounts for their not having noticed the approach of the lake steamer.

REV. F. E. COBURN OCCUPIED THE PULPIT

At First Baptist Church
Yesterday

The pulpit at the First Baptist church yesterday was occupied by Rev. F. E. Coburn, a Lowell boy. Mr. Coburn was ordained in the First Baptist church and gave him great pleasure to be at home again. He preached morning and evening. His text in the evening was from John 14:15: "Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you."

"There is a difference," he said, between companionship and friendship. It was not until these disciples had been with him for about three years, that Jesus called them friends. Many have made companions to their hurt, but a friend is one that stands closer than a brother. While Jesus' friends were few, the group was not very broad. Through the group were two diverse characters, and different classes and conditions represented. "Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you."

To know Jesus Christ is to have companions to walk with him is to be in a pure, higher atmosphere; to know him is to find the peace of an unfathomable sky.

It is not very hard to do what Jesus Christ commands. First of all, the plain duty of us all is to believe Jesus Second, it is to trust him. And lastly, it is to do whatever he may command us, to life.

It will take years for us to change from companionship to friendship. We must come to get acquainted with Jesus; then we must enter into his service, then into his fellowship; and we must come to love him, and be devoted unto him.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of Waverly lodge, Sons of St. George, was held in the lodge hall in Middlesex street Saturday night. There was a good attendance and considerable routine business was transacted. President Harry L. Francis occupied the chair. The question of celebrating the 40th anniversary of the lodge was discussed and the following general committee was named to take charge of the affair:

John W. Foster, Frank Orrell, Thos. Gardner, Willie H. Bowles, H. J. Bonnell, Fred Potter, John Barker, John Orrell, George Humphries, George C. J. Harry L. Francis, John W. Andrews, and N. W. Matthews, Jr. This committee were given full power to make all arrangements for the celebration.

After the lodge business the committee met and made preliminary plans. P. P. John W. Foster was chosen chairman of the committee and P. P. John Barker, secretary. It was decided to observe the anniversary with a supper and concert to be held on Saturday evening, Nov. 2, and the Odd Fellows banquet and entertainment balls have already been engaged. It is expected that the members of the lodge will assist the committee in any way they can so that this years anniversary may equal, if not surpass the good time of 1911. The sub-committees appointed were: Entertainment, Frank L.

TOURNAINE GUESTS NEAR DINNERLESS BECAUSE OF DISCHARGE OF COOK

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—The score of more of distinguished visitors to Boston who are guests at the Hotel Touraine, narrowly escaped going dinnerless yesterday when, for a time a strike of all the cooks and waiters was threatened. The temporary difference was finally settled by Assistant Manager Staples after a telephone conference with Organizer Bloehlinger of the International Hotel Workers' union, but not before some of the patrons of the dining room had had time to work up a fine young appetite.

This occurrence at the Touraine is a situation similar to that which held in New York during the trouble with the waiters there. The union leaders declare that they are going to force the hotel managers of Boston into an agreement which will prevent the summary discharge of employees and if necessary a simultaneous strike in all hotels will be called.

The trouble at the Touraine arose over the discharge by a chef of a cook who is alleged to have reported five minutes late for duty.

The manager was out of town, and Assistant Manager Staples, after a few minutes' talk, when told that his employees would strike at once, restored the cook to his position.

Tomorrow night there will be a general meeting of the union and Friday night there will be another, at which the agreement will be discussed.

GUIDED BY DREAM MAN FOUND BODY Of Young Woman Who Was Drowned

MEREDITH, N. H., Aug. 26.—The body of Miss Blanche Sinclair, the student at the Wheelock School for Kindergarten Teachers in Boston, who was drowned in Lake Winnepesaukee Aug. 9, was found yesterday morning by John Blake, who says he was guided by a dream.

Blake woke at 4 o'clock yesterday morning and told his wife that he had dreamed of discovering the body of the missing girl. He got up, dressed, and on his way to his power boat met Assistant Policeman Adrian Williams, who was on duty near the lockup.

Blake asked Williams to go with him, and within a half hour after they reached the place where her boat was found they discovered the body of Miss Sinclair floating.

Miss Sinclair, who was 18 years old, was spending her vacation here in the Shaw cottage with Miss Marietta Nute of Dorchester, Mass. Friday afternoon, Aug. 9, Miss Nute and Miss Morton, another young friend, came to Meredith, leaving Miss Sinclair to prepare supper. When they returned to camp Miss Sinclair was missing and a small steel boat was also gone.

The boat was found early in the night floating loose against the shore a little more than a mile from Meredith wharf, and about one and one-half miles from the Shaw cottage. A general alarm was given and the Meredith fire companies and citizens searched the shore through the night.

Next morning search of the lake was begun under the direction of Police-man John Morrison. An uncle of Miss Sinclair, M. E. Owen of Boston, came to aid in the search and a diver was summoned. Later many charges of dynamite were exploded in the vicinity where the body was thought to be.

Miss Sinclair's mother is now living in Manchester, N. H., but the family came recently from "Clinton, N. Y." Her uncle, M. E. Owen, was notified of the finding of the body.

NEW ORGANIZATION OF THE WEAVERS

Is Being Formed in New
Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 26.—The seventh week of the weavers' strike in this city opened yesterday with continued unsettled conditions but with possible clearing weather before Christmas. No severe storms have been reported in any section and there is a large area of high barometric pressure which is due to arrive here after Labor Day.

The general feeling in this city tonight is that if the mills open up after Labor Day that there would be enough operatives to work to allow them to run and that any way, the strike situation would work out by the middle of this week into something definite.

The attitude of the mills and the weavers is the same as at the start on the grading system. The executive committee members state that the Fall River Weavers' Union is to send a loan of $10,000 here Wednesday. Instructions have been sent to the mill owners by the National Federation of Cloth Weavers that six delegates from the weavers' union be sent out immediately throughout the country to solicit contributions.

It is reported that the treasurers of all the unions are being hit rather hard on account of the New Bedford strike. In round figures it is known that the unions have expended about $15,000. The Weavers' union has not up to date received the financial assistance that it expected. An official of the Weavers' union stated today that he had heard that the United Textile Workers were coming along the lines that had once before been started to come to New Bedford and organize a Weavers' Union to be affiliated with the United Textile Workers of America.

ica, with which the present weavers' organization is not. It is reported that the starters of this movement think that now would be a good time to undertake such a movement, as many of the weavers here are ready to go to work, being dissatisfied with the conduct of the strike. The claim is made that all the textile unions affiliated with the U. T. W. that better conditions could be secured for the mill workers, and that in case of a strike there would be united action, that could secure united support from the other textile unions throughout the country, and not as at the present time, when the unions are working independently and with indifferent success.

GIRL SHOT

HER BROTHER ACCIDENTALLY
DISCHARGED REVOLVER

HOLBROOK, Aug. 25.—Margaret Brewster, aged 12, received the contents of a shotgun in her arm, neck and face yesterday afternoon in a barn in the rear of the brewster residence on Center street.

Her father, Joseph Brewster, had a gun in the barn which he kept loaded to shoot rats which were carrying away his chickens. His son Wilbur, 10 years old, and Margaret went out to the barn to play, and the young fellow, it is said, picked the gun up and accidentally pulled the trigger. The shot first struck a piece of iron on a bench and, glancing off, struck the girl. Dr. Frank C. Granger of Randolph was called and tried to pick out the shattered shot, but was obliged to send the girl to the Massachusetts General hospital in Boston where the X ray will be employed to determine where the shot is located.

The gun was heavily loaded with fine shot.

Mr. Brewster believed he kept the gun where his children would not be able to reach it.

THE TYPO UNION

DENOUNCES THE METHOD OF
COAL DEALERS

BOSTON, Aug. 25.—Charging that the coal dealers of Boston and the United States are the direct cause of untold suffering by their methods of raising the price of coal, the Boston Typographical union at its meeting yesterday afternoon inaugurated a campaign to have the legislature fix a maximum price for coal in Massachusetts.

The methods of the local coal dealers were denounced, as was their declaration that the rise in price of coal was due to the action of the labor unions themselves. The union declared in favor of government ownership of all coal mines and called upon all unions and fraternal organizations to join the movement and petition the legislature.

A set of resolutions was drawn up expressing the attitude of the union as follows:

"Resolved—We, the members of Boston Typographical Union No. 13, in regular session, do hereby condemn the coal dealers of Greater Boston for their selfish greed; and, be it further resolved, that we resent the imputation against labor for the said increase; and, be it further resolved, that the Boston Typographical Union in regular session urges its sister unions and fraternities to petition the general court of Massachusetts to fix a maximum price for coal."

"Be it further resolved, that we favor the government ownership of the coal business of the United States."

"Be it further resolved, that copies of these resolutions be printed and distributed to the representatives of the general court and the members of congress from Massachusetts."

HOW IT APPEARS TO THEM

WOMAN KILLED SON ASSAULTED

Robbery Was the Motive
of Crime

WEST ENFIELD, Me., Aug. 25.—When Frank Jacoby, a Russian Pole, employed in the pulp mill here as a coal heaver, came back from a berrying trip yesterday afternoon he found the door of his little cottage locked.

He climbed in a window and on the bed found the body of his wife and upon the floor that of his 5-year-old son.

The woman had evidently been killed with a single blow upon the head while asleep. One blow on the head had also been inflicted upon the child, but he was alive.

A trunk in the room had been broken open and $285 in money and a gold ring stolen.

A Pole whose Americanized name is Charlie Smith, is locked up charged with the murder. Smith, who has been in this country only a short time, was a boarder in the Jacoby family. Mrs. Jacoby had been in the habit of carrying $225, the family savings, and $50 given her for safe-keeping by another boarder, about with her.

Yesterday morning in the presence of Smith, Jacoby told his wife, he says, that she had better put the money in the trunk, which she did. Smith seeing her.

After breakfast Smith took his bicycle and went to a farm for some apples, while Jacoby and another boarder went berrying.

Smith was seen to come back early in the afternoon, it is alleged, and later he went to the house of John Doherty, about half a mile away, and told a woman and child had been killed at West Enfield, it is alleged.

Constable J. F. Lawrence arrested Smith and notified Sheriff T. H. White and County Atty. George L. Thompson. They arrived here late last night and will take Smith to Bangor today.

Search of the house revealed the heavy sick which it is claimed was used to commit the crime.

Last night it was said the bay had a chance for recovery.

LAWRENCE MAN WAS DESPONDENT FOR SOME TIME

LAWRENCE, Aug. 25.—Harry Coolbrick, 45, of 132 Spruce street, was sitting on the front steps of the house with his brother yesterday afternoon. He was argument and his brother tried to cheer him.

Suddenly Coolbrick rose and went up stairs. After a while his brother, alarmed that he did not come down, went up to investigate. He found his brother lying dead in a pool of blood in the bathroom, his throat cut from ear to ear, and a razor at his side.

"On the washstand was a note, scribbled hastily on a bit of paper. 'I am sorry for my foolish act,' it said. 'For give me. Take care of mother.'"

Coolbrick had been in ill health for some time.

EXPLOSION MYSTERY AT CRANSTON, R. I.

House Wrecked and Inmate Killed

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 25.—A mysterious explosion, believed by Medical Examiner Latham to have been caused by dynamite, blew a building to splinters and killed Pietro D'Avanzo, 70 years old, at Pawtucket at 2:15 o'clock yesterday morning. Pawtucket is in Cranston about seven miles from Providence.

The shock of the explosion was felt in various parts of the state and for a while it was thought there had been an earthquake. The house destroyed was owned by Frank Ramova, who permitted D'Avanzo to sleep in it.

Villagers found the little old house was in fragments, not even a single brick being left whole, the end of a dwelling 100 feet distant was blown off, while others all the windows had been shattered.

They found the old man's mangled body about 60 feet from the site of the house.

Medical Examiner Latham began an investigation at daylight. He was informed that Ramova had sold fireworks in Providence on July 4 and that he brought to the house and stored six sheets of iron lined boxes, which contained rockets and home-made paper torpedoes. Some of these were found intact.

He decided the house was demolished by dynamite, either by accident or design. No fireworks, he said, could have caused such a wreck.

This afternoon he was informed that recently Ramova had business transactions with a fellow-countryman in which the latter claimed he had received shabby treatment.

Dovetailing in with that story which the doctor says he has not been able to verify, is that told by one of the guards at the state prison nearby. A few nights ago, the guard says, when he was returning home, he saw a man in the road carrying an ax.

He asked the man what he was doing, at which the guard says, he replied that he was going down to Ramova's to demolish the house, because Ramova had bested him in a deal. The prison guard thought that the man was foolishly boasting and paid no further heed to the incident until just after 2 o'clock this morning, when he heard two men run by his house and down Pontiac avenue. A few minutes later came the explosion.

GOV. WILSON

CAMPAIGN PLANS

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A general plan for the personal campaign of Gov. Wilson was discussed at the democratic conference today which was attended by Gov. Wilson, Vice Chairman McAdoo, Treasurer Wells and National Committeemen Daniels and Robert E. Fawcett. Gov. Wilson does not contemplate any extended stump tour and will make only a few speeches in the larger cities.

$1,000,000 LOSS

CAUSED BY THE STRIKE IN NEW BEDFORD

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 25.—The weavers' strike for the abolition of the grading system of payment, which has made idle thousands of operatives and has closed twelve cotton cloth mills, entered its seventh week today. Prospects of a settlement were more encouraging than for several weeks and the idle employees expressed the hope that they would return to work within two weeks.

The strikers and locked out workers were encouraged by the statement of Walter H. Langshaw, agent of the Dartmouth mills, that he favored reopening the mills at a reasonably early date.

It was estimated that the strike has caused a loss of approximately $1,000,000. Of the 13,000 workers made idle when the mills were closed it is said that several thousands have sought employment elsewhere. Strike benefits aggregating $50,000 have been paid by the unions.

BRITISH SHIP PORT PATRICK EXPERIENCED ROUGH VOYAGE

Two Seamen Swept Overboard by
Monster Wave and the Mate
Died of Heart Disease

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The British ship Port Patrick from New York has reached Adelaide, Australia, minus her mate, two seamen, a suit of sails and the ship's stores. Advice received here today brought news that the vessel met her first storm on day out and her last one the day before she reached Adelaide and saw no fair weather.

Two weeks out a northeast gale drove a wave over her stern and snapped off her wheel, carrying the ing forward, the comber wrenched away the wheelbox and two compasses, smashed the cabin skylight and flooded the ship's stores. The chart house was crumpled up and as the ship, free from her helm rolled into the trough of the sea, the wind stripped her upper canvas and reduced the rest to ribbons.

A temporary steering gear rescued her for the time and with makeshift sails she weathered gale after gale until the Australian coast was reached. The mate died of heart disease.

THREE INJURED
IN AUTO ACCIDENT
Bank Man's Car Skids
at Worcester

WORCESTER, Aug. 25.—A large touring car, owned and operated by Clarence A. Evans of 25 Dayton street, vice president of the Merchants' National bank of Worcester, skidded at Franklin square yesterday, and jumping the curb, crashed into a building at the corner of Main and Southbridge streets, plunging three people to the wall.

It narrowly missed striking a number of persons waiting at the square for suburban cars.

The injured are: Louis Bricklin, aged 45, and his five-year-old daughter, Martha, of 11 Columbia street; Hyura Hobitz of 11 Bowdoin street, and Mrs. Evans.

Mrs. Evans and her three-year-old daughter, Barton, were thrown over the side of the car as it struck the curb, while the Bricklins and Hobitz were pinned between the car and the building. Mrs. Evans escaped with a few minor injuries, while her son received only a shaking up.

Mr. Bricklin was the most severely injured. His body was cut from the knee to the waist line, his thigh was torn, and it was feared that he would bleed to death before the City hospital was reached. He also received injuries about the body.

Hobitz was knocked unconscious, and suffered a severe scalp wound and possible internal injuries.

The Bricklin girl was bruised about the body. She was taken home, while her mother and Hobitz were rushed to the hospital, where it was reported last night they will probably recover.

According to the story told the police, Evans was driving along Main street and was turning into Southbridge street when the auto skidded after striking a frog in the car tracks. The injured were looking in the opposite direction and were caught between the auto and the building. The force of the blow smashed a cellar window 20 feet away from where the auto struck.

Mr. Evans said tonight that his car was traveling slowly and that because of the wet pavements the accident could not be avoided.

INJURIES FATAL

MAN WAS HURT WHEN AUTO
TURNED TURTLE

HAVERHILL, Aug. 25.—Roy G. White, 46 years old, died suddenly last night of internal injuries received in an automobile accident two weeks ago today. White, with two companions, was returning from Lawrence, when his machine skidded and plunged off the state highway just above the baseball grounds on River street. When the machine turned turtle, White, who had been driving, was pinned under the wreckage and was later taken home by his two companions in another machine and the doctors said that he had a broken left rib.

Mr. White was apparently improving rapidly, but about a last night he was taken suddenly ill and died four hours later. Medical Examiner Crofton was called and ordered an autopsy performed.

White lived on Currier avenue and leaves a wife and two children. He had been living in Haverhill about six months, having previously resided in Manchester, N. H.

WHILE LAWRENCE LOST AND TIEDGreat Crowd Saw Grays Cop the Double Header From Haverhill

By defeating Haverhill in the double header Saturday, Lowell closed one of its most successful weeks of the season, and came so close to being first place, that Louis Pelner of the Lawrence outfit is now. While Lowell was winning six out of seven games last week, Lawrence had to be satisfied with two victories, four defeats and a tie game.

The remarkable work of the Grays, has made them loom up as the pennant winners all over the circuit, with of course the possible exception of the Lawrence series, who naturally are pulling for their team.

Saturday's games at Spaulding park were two of the best of the season, especially the latter contest. The first was won by the score of 3 to 2, while the second resulted in a 1 to 0 victory for the champs.

Both games were hotly contested and each was either a game until the final out. Lowell was on the rubber for Lowell in the first, and though hit rather hard, his teammates batted well behind him and he pulled out a victory. In the pinches, with the exception of the second inning, Wolfgang pitched air tight ball, and only in that session did the visitors score.

Kessler started for Haverhill and after allowing Lowell four hits in the opening inning for four runs he was yanked and Woodman replaced him. Of the four hits one was a home run by Miller and another a double by De Groff. Woodman held the locals at bay until the fifth, when four runs were sent over the pun. One more was scored by the locals in the sixth. The second game was somewhat different from the first, and the large crowd completely enjoyed the two exhibitions. The first game:

First Inning

Campbell opened by striking out and Courtney hit an easy one to Miller who threw him out to McGamwell. "Doc" Courtney fled out to Miller. Clemens fled out to Matthews and Magee came next with a close single. De Groff got a free base close to right field and sent Magee to third. McGamwell brought home Magee and De Groff with a single to right and Pfeffer went in to run for McGamwell, the latter having an injured leg. Miller gave the leather a ride to the left field fence and scuffled all the way around the bases, heading scoring Pfeffer. Routes fled out to Pratt and Dee went out on a ground ball to Courtney unassisted.

Score—Lowell 4, Haverhill 0.

Second Inning

Matthews singled and so did Young and both advanced on a passed ball. Cross hit to left for one base and scored both Matthews and Young. Courtney went out on an infield fly to Dee and then Pratt got a single sending Cross to third. Kessler hit to Dee who booted it and the runner was safe at first. Cross came home on the play and Campbell pitched a single to left field filling the bases. Courtney hit to Routes who tagged third thereby retiring Kessler and then he threw wildly to the plate. Pratt scored, Courtney hit to Dee, Campbell scored and Courtney was safe at first but Courtney was thrown out trying to score, Dee to McGamwell to Lavigne.

Woodman was sent in to relieve Kessler for Haverhill. Lavigne fled out to Matthews and Wolfgang was thrown out Young to Courtney. Clemens fled out to Young who made a pretty running out-hand catch.

Score—Lowell 4, Haverhill 5.

Third Inning

Matthews hit one to Wolfgang who threw him out to McGamwell. Young singled and stole second and Cross got a scratch hit sending Young to third. Courtney hit to Wolfgang who threw to Lavigne getting Young and the latter sliding for the plate spiked Lavigne. The game was delayed for a few moments but Lavigne stuck gamely by his

Score—Lowell 4, Haverhill 5.

Fourth Inning

Woodman hit emptiness three times and Campbell died. Wolfgang to McGamwell. Courtney went away on a grounder to McGamwell. Miller and Dee fanned and Routes went out. Young to Courtney. An enthusiastic Lawrence fan in the grand stand who had some talk in regard to the pennant and a few sardonic remarks that said pennant was created for Lawrence alone, offered to make a bet to that effect and someone asked him where he got the money. "Not from Gray," he replied. "Why not?" came the question, and then the Lawrence patriot had the nerve to answer: "Because it is green." He still lives.

Score—Lowell 4, Haverhill 5.

Fifth Inning

Carney was put away. Dee to McGamwell and Matthews fanned. Young hit a fly ball which Dee easily pulled out of the air. Lavigne hit to Campbell who threw too high to first and the runner was safe. He took second on Wolfgang's sacrifice, the latter going out. Woodman to Young. Clemens got a scratch hit. Magee bunted scoring Lavigne and beat the ball to first. During an argument on this decision and before time was called, Lavigne stole second. Clemens having previously gone to third. De Groff singled to left field and Clemens and Magee came home. De Groff stole second and went to third on Pratt's poor throw. McGamwell walked. Miller hit to Young and went out to Courtney but De Groff scored on the put out. Routes fanned and closed the inning.

Score—Lowell 8, Haverhill 5.

AMERICAN AVIATOR WON
ST. MALO, France, Aug. 26.—Chas. T. Weymann, the American aviator, today won the principal event of the hydro-aeroplane meet, which started here Saturday.
Weymann, who flew in a monoplane, made the excellent time of one hour, 40 minutes for the distance of 145 kilometres (approximately 90 miles, one furlong from St. Malo to the island of Jersey and return). The race was over the waters of the English channel.

GREAT SUCCESS
MADE BY A. E. O'HEIR
His New Store in Hurd Street Finished

A visit to this store will be a revelation to the people of this city and suburbs, and those who have already seen it are showing congratulations on the owner for his business ability. In giving a brief description one can get some idea of what has been done for the benefit of the people looking for up-to-date and stylish furniture.
To begin with a mammoth display window of two stories has been built out six feet, and lets a flood of light into the show room and at the same time adds to the appearance of the building. There is a pitch of several feet along Hurd street from Central so that people passing on Central street can look down into the show windows.
The extraordinary addition to the old Y. M. C. A. building has been used, giving a depth to the store of about 100 feet. The width of the building is 52 feet. As one enters the store from Hurd street one gets an impression of immensity which sticks as one goes through the stock. From the entrance the stairway in the basement and the open wall to the second floor permits a glimpse of three floors at one time.

The basement has been deepened by the building of a cement wall, 20 inches at the base and 14 inches at the top, underlaying the old wall. Light comes into the basement on the east side from four windows.
The first floor gets light on all sides and is prettily finished. This floor and the second and third are finished with light gray walls and metal trimmings. There is a fine metal ceiling for the first floor. The second floor has the same dimensions as the first, and there is one step from the front half to the rear half.
An Otis freight and passenger elevator with the best safety devices available has been installed for the five floors. All over the building, on every floor, are the steam radiators, and a Crawford boiler has been put in place in the basement. On the first floor, two offices of quarters are to be found, one for the manager and one for the office and public office, and a private office for Mr. O'Heir's furniture business.
Some of Mr. O'Heir's furniture has already arrived and the rest is in the road. In the basement will be found refrigerators, piazza chairs and all kinds of piazza furniture. Ranges, stoves and iron beds will be stored in the basement.
On the first floor will be a display of lard.

THE PENROSE BILL PASSED BY SENATE

Inquiry Into Financial Transactions Between Archbold and Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—With Senator La Follette holding out the threat of a filibuster that would indefinitely prolong the session of congress, the senate today passed without a roll call the Penrose resolution to have the Clapp committee investigating campaign funds inquire into "correspondence or financial transactions between John D. Archbold, George W. Perkins, Theodore Roosevelt and members of congress."

The scenes of Saturday night and early Sunday morning when every parliamentary usage was put forth to keep the Penrose resolution from coming to a vote were in no way repeated today. Leaders of both sides declared this

THE LOWELL COTTON MILL PLANTS AMERICAN FORCES

WILL NOT SHUT DOWN THIS SUMMER

The cotton mills will not indulge in a vacation this summer. The mill owners, and a majority of the operatives, too, allow that the four weeks of idleness due to the strike is enough for one season. One mill agent said to a reporter for The Sun today that he thought it would not be fair to shut down the mills for a vacation of two weeks. "So far as business is concerned," he said, "there is no occasion for a shutdown, yet I have seen times when business was better at this season of the year. The fact of the matter is it would not be fair to the operatives to subject them to two weeks more of enforced idleness. A majority of the operatives who were forced into idleness because of the strike were not in sympathy with the strike movement and a great many of them were not prepared and were not desirous of leaving at that time. A month of idleness throws the average operative back quite a few steps and it takes him some time to catch up. I have tested the sentiment in our mills and I find that the help would prefer to keep on working. They do not want the usual summer vacation and many of them told me that it would be a downright hardship at this time. We have good operatives in Lowell, the best in the country, and we will do our best to keep them happy and contented."

Workmen's Compensation Act
At all of the mills visited by the reporter it was stated that business was fairly good and the mill men seemed to be quite optimistic as to the future. Among other things the reporter inquired about the workmen's compensation act. It had been stated that the corporations didn't like it very well, looking upon it as an extra burden. Not one mill man interviewed by The Sun reporter had a word to say against the new act. In fact one prominent mill man said he thought it was the best thing that ever happened. He looked upon it as a protection to the operative and operator as well. He would be willing, he said, to supply statistics to show that it is of mutual benefit to servant and master. "Of course," he said, "it will bear down a little hard on Massachusetts until the act has been made national. It will mean a small increase in the price of goods in Massachusetts and that will slightly handicap our chances for competition. I feel, however, that the act has sufficient merit to appeal to all states in the union and there is no doubt in my mind but what it will become a national act and in a comparatively short time."

Centralizing the Power
The Massachusetts corporation has taken its second step in the centralization of its mill power by abandoning the eight boilers in the old boiler house in Bridge street and swinging over to the new power plant that was put in operation some few months ago. So far as the centralization of its power is concerned the Massachusetts has but one more step to take and that is to abandon the old boiler house of the corporation and the machinery there with power from the new plant. The third step will be taken within a short time and then the scheme of power centralization will have been completed.

Will Use More Electricity
A little more than half of the Massachusetts plant is operated and lighted by electricity at the present time and it is only a question of time when electricity will be the sole agent. The company has just installed a new 750 kilo watt steam turbine of the Parsons type and made by the General Electric Co. and steps are now being taken to light the entire plant by electricity. The management allows that electric lights are more healthful than gas lights, hence the proposed change.

Plenty of Cotton on Hand
Most of the mills have a good supply of cotton on hand and a peek into the big cotton storehouse of the Massachusetts in Bridge street and the Prescott storehouse will convince one that there is some cotton in Lowell. A new supply will come in about October and there will be room for it at that time. The big storehouse in Bridge street was made to hold 18,000 bales of cotton, a year's supply. On account of the saving in head room and also on account of the ease and cheapness of construction the new room or godown type of interior floor construction was adopted and, as one of the workmen said, there is nothing in the big building but room. The total height from finished floor to finished floor is only eight feet. The great weight on the columns in the lower stories would have necessitated such large reinforced concrete columns that much valuable floor space would be used up. Consequently, structural steel columns encased in concrete were adopted. The floors are granolithic finish placed integral with the structural floor slab. The roofing is of standard live-ly and gravel roof. The windows throughout have metal frames with wire glass.

GAMBLERS FINED IN POLICE COURT

Other Cases Heard in Court Today

A detail of police officers visited the lodging house at 454 Merrimack street about 8 o'clock Saturday night and placed 11 men under arrest for being present at a game. The police received a number of complaints relative to this house where it is alleged there is considerable gambling going on.

Accordingly, Saturday night Sgt. McLaughlin and Ryan, Inspectors Somers and Alexander McLaughlin visited the place and arrested Marie Delisle, George Topp, Peter Manafis, Peter Corio, Daniel Shea, William Burns, Alfred McMenon, John Verdon, Pierre Desjardins, Patrick Delmore and Edgar Delhart.

In police court this morning the men were charged with being present at a game and after a general plea of guilty had been made by J. Joseph Hennessy, their counsel, the court ordered each to pay a fine of $5.

Case Continued
Kahnman Bernstein was arrested by Inspector John F. Linton of the Boston police department in Boston Saturday night for the Lowell police, on a warrant charging him with being an unlicensed liquor vendor. It is alleged that Bernstein had conducted a sample jewelry store in the Fiske block in Central street without having a state or local license to do business. Bernstein was brought back to this city and later released under bail. The case was to have been heard in police court this morning but at the request of counsel for the defendant it was continued until Sept. 10.

Collapsed in Court
Elizabeth Kervin, an elderly woman who is blind, and her son, John F. Kervin, were arrested early this morning at their home in Wall street, Bellevue, by Patrolman Bickner, after some of the neighbors had complained to him about the boisterous actions of the couple. They were taken to the police station where they were charged with being drunk. While waiting to be heard in court this morning the woman collapsed and would have fallen to the floor if it had not been for the fact that officers ran to her assistance and carried her downstairs when she was revived. Later when brought into court, a fine of $6 was imposed. The son was sentenced to four months in jail but appealed.

Other Offenders
Alexander J. Kennedy, charged with being drunk, was given a suspended sentence of three months in jail and placed on probation for six months. John Graham was given a suspended sentence of four months in jail and placed on probation for six months. William Moran, John B. Prury, Melvin E. Greunt and John J. Gallagher were fined $5 each. Ernest Spooner, a Sunday drunk, was fined $5 and one first offender was fined $5.

William L. Mulcahy, of Brookfield, Mass., is in this city, the guest of Edwin P. Bassett, of Sherman street.

FEWER FIRES

OCCURRED DURING THE MONTH OF AUGUST

Chief E. S. Hosmer of the local fire department in conversation with a reporter of The Sun this afternoon stated the month of August this year beats all previous records for the small number of fires. He stated this was a very quiet month so far for fires, and said the firemen enjoyed a much earned rest.

Last year, during the month of August, there were 47 fires, one of which, the Courtney fire in Middlesex village, caused damages to the extent of $3000, while this month up to the present time there were but 23 alarms. One, however, was very disastrous, causing about $25,000 damage to the Walter L. Parker company's plant in Dutton street. The month of August is generally a hard one on firemen on account of brush fires, but this year the latter were very scarce. There was not one alarm today.

GIRL DROWNED

THIRD CALAMITY WITHIN WEEK IN FAMILY OF C. D. HUFF

MONTGOMERY, Mo., Aug. 26.—The third calamity within a week struck the home of C. D. Huff, a farmer near here today when his 18 months' old daughter fell into a well and was drowned. Last Wednesday the Huff home was destroyed by fire. Yesterday their barn and much valuable livestock and farm products were burned.

DEATHS

PAVIS—Lafayette P. Davis, an old resident of Lowell, Mass., passed away in San Francisco, Aug. 13, 1912. He left a wife, daughter and son in California and a sister and three brothers in the east. He was a passenger conductor on the Southern Pacific railway at the time of his death and had been an employee of the Boston & Maine railway. His body was brought here for burial by his son-in-law, E. B. Parker, and laid to rest by the side of his son, Lafayette, at St. George's. He was the undertaker in charge and Rev. J. Clement Wilson held services at the grave.

LENNON—Patrick Lennon, a well known resident, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Donnell, 275 East Merrimack street.

McNULTY—Thomas McNulty, aged 41 years, died Friday night at his late home, 5 in the rear of 134 South street. He leaves to mourn his loss two daughters, Misses Mary and Annie McNulty; two brothers, Peter and Robert of England; and two sisters, Misses Mary and Alice McNulty of England.

DINLEY—Frank H. Dinley, aged 54 years, died suddenly at the Rhode Island hospital, Providence. He leaves two brothers, Michael and James Dinley, known residents of Dracut. His body will be brought in this city and re-interred to the chapel of J. E. O'Donnell & Sons.

MATRIMONIAL

A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at St. Joseph's church, when Mr. Armand Vohl and Miss Rosanna Bickner were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at a nuptial mass, celebrated at 10 o'clock by Rev. Jerome Dine, O. M. I., and the witnesses were Messrs. J. J. Harwood and John Baptiste Dine. At the close of the mass the bride and groom repaired to the home of Mr. J. J. Harwood, 506 Suffolk street, where a dainty repast was served. This was followed by a brief reception during which excellent music was rendered by the Jolly Quartet, Messrs. Charles Vohl, Armand Vohl, Edward Vohl and Fred Piquette. The happy couple left on the 11:05 o'clock train for New Bedford. They will also visit relatives in Central Falls and Woonsocket on their return Thursday a reception will be tendered them at 75 Tremont street, and the newly wedded couple will make their home at 406 Suffolk street. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. Damase Larroque of Montreal and Mr. David Morin of Manchester.

WAS 101 YEARS OLD

ELMIRA, N. Y., Aug. 26.—George Paine of this city, who was 101 years old July 9 and whose recent trip to New York city aroused much interest, died this morning while visiting his son at Odesa, near this city. Mr. Paine had been selling books up to the very day he was taken ill of cholera and showed remarkable health and vitality.

Will Close Labor Day

The mill operatives will have their week-end holiday extended, so to speak. There will be nothing doing in the mills on Monday, Labor day, and when the mills close at noon on Saturday the operatives will be free lanes until Tuesday morning.

Golden West Not Attractive

The Sun reporter talked with another mill man who talked about the class of help in the mills today as compared to a year ago, or before the strike. The reporter had been told by several mill men, including some who told him that "golden west" had left Lowell during the time of the strike and had not returned. The mill man with whom the reporter talked today, said: "It is true that many mill operatives left Lowell during the strike and some of them have remained away. It is also true that quite a number of them, especially men, left their work in the mills after the strike was called off. 'We were in some-what of a quandary to understand it and we were anxious, too, because we did not want our operatives to leave the city. Well, we looked about for a cause and we found that the western railroad men here who were making inroads on our help, especially the foreign element. Of course there was nothing we could do about it but to await results and we didn't have very long to wait."

Several weeks ago the men who had gone away began to weed their way home and they had some strange tales to tell of their adventures. Most of them are back in the mills and some of those who have been reinstated have sent money to their companions in the west to pay their way home. They were paid, they claim, from $1.00 to $2.50 a day, but they can save more money here on $9 or $10 a week. At least that is what they tell us. All we know of our own knowledge is that they went away and were glad to come back. The golden west did not prove as attractive as they thought and they

Inspector Connor Says it is Unsafe

The old wooden building at the corner of Middlesex and Howard streets, and owned by Jeanette Pike has been condemned by Inspector Connor of the public buildings department. The building is a three story affair and the inspector has ordered that the two top stories be taken down as they are a menace, he says, to public safety. He has also ordered the wooden awning on the Howard street side removed. The building is at present occupied by Samuel Pike as a provision store. Mr. Pike has occupied the store for years.

Comfort Station Bids

Bids for the construction of the proposed comfort station in Paige street, near Bridge street, will be submitted at the office of the commissioner of public buildings instead of at the office of the architect as stated in the advertisement. There will be no change, however, in the date.

Will Draw Jurors

The municipal council will hold a meeting tonight, ostensibly for the purpose of hearing parties who have made the statement that river water is being used for domestic purposes in Lowell, and incidentally to transact whatever other business that may appear on the boards. It is not expected

The municipal council will hold a meeting tonight, ostensibly for the purpose of hearing parties who have made the statement that river water is being used for domestic purposes in Lowell, and incidentally to transact whatever other business that may appear on the boards. It is not expected that the hearing on the water question will amount to very much. The most important business before the board, so far as is known at this time, will be drawing of six traverses jurors to serve at the September sitting of the superior criminal court in this city.

School Board Meeting

The school board will hold its August meeting, more properly its meeting for the month of August, at city hall tomorrow evening, and the indications point to a session long drawn out. Among the business matters to be attended to is the election of a superintendent of schools, position 53 of the charter stating unambiguously: "The school committee shall elect a superintendent." The election of some eight or nine teachers for the industrial school will engage the attention of the committee; likewise the assignment of new temporary substitutes.

Small accounts solicited and appreciated at the Old Lowell National Bank.

MAN INHALED GAS BUT MAY RECOVER

Found Unconscious and Taken to Hospital

John Watson, a middle aged man residing at 188 Tilden street, attempted to end his life this morning by inhaling illuminating gas. Fortunately he was discovered by his wife before life was extinct and was hurried to the Lowell hospital where he received treatment.

Watson had been in a nervous condition lately. This morning he intended to go to his work and arose shortly before six o'clock. Shortly afterwards his wife arose and when she entered the kitchen she found him behind the gas stove with one end of a tube connected with the stove and the other end in his mouth. The man was in an unconscious condition and was hurried to the Lowell hospital where he received treatment and the physicians think that he will recover.

ABLEST DETECTIVES HAVE BEEN ENGAGED

To Ferret Out Evidence of Police Blackmail and Laxity in New York City Department

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—With the appointment of William J. Flynn, chief of the local secret service bureau as chief of the aldermanic investigating committee came the news today that a corps of the ablest detectives in the country will aid Flynn in ferreting out evidence of police blackmail. Some of the secret service men have proved their ability in tracking counterfeiters and other criminals. The investigating committee expects to meet tomorrow for purposes of further organization.

ward offered for the capture of "Gyp the Blood" and the hope of the New York authorities that he was right were simultaneously elated by detectives of the district attorney's office who visited Milford, Penn., yesterday and failed to identify Sheriff Cuddeback's prisoner as the man wanted. The man was released and the ripple of interest which the report caused had subsided last night, leaving the whereabouts of "Gyp" and "Lefty Louie," both of whom are indicted in the Rosenthal murder, as much of a mystery as ever.

So far as police headquarters here are concerned, no report was made officially regarding Sheriff Cuddeback's capture. The sheriff telephoned to headquarters early yesterday that he thought he had "Gyp" under arrest at Milford, but distinct communication could not be had over the telephone for some reason, and the request was made here that Sheriff Cuddebeck report his capture formally by telegram. This request the sent complied with, and the police dropped the matter. The district attorney's office, however, which was also notified, sent two of its men to Milford, only to prove the sheriff's mistake.

The detectives are believed to be returning to New York, satisfied not only that the suspect taken and later released was the wrong man, but that neither of the fugitives are in that section. The large reward offered for the two men is expected to lead to a number of similar mistaken arrests in various sections, but eventually the authorities hope to get their men.

In the absence of Dist. Atty. Whitman on his week-end visit to Manchester, Vt., the principal activity at his office yesterday was that of his assistant, William De Ford, who has been assigned to take charge of the presentation to the police craft cases to Justice Goff in the extraordinary session of the criminal branch of the supreme court beginning Sept. 3.

Mr. De Ford spent practically all of the day in his office preparing the information to lay before Justice Goff, who will act as a committing magistrate.

AN AGED MAN

WAS HANGED FOR MURDERING A PLANTER

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 26.—George Rose, 70 years, recently convicted for the murder of a neighboring planter, J. M. Miller in McMinn county, was hanged here today. One of Rose's sons is in prison for murder. He promised Rose he would even pay the things when he had served his 15 years' sentence.

GEORGE W. PERKINS

WILL NOT TESTIFY BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Geo. W. Perkins will not testify tomorrow as had been arranged. Before the Clapp committee he had made no contributions to the campaign funds of 1904 and 1905. The trouble over adjournment in which congress finds itself which has made it impossible for the committee to get a quorum has overturned that plan. The appearance of Mr. Perkins has been indefinitely postponed. Senator Clapp announced today that he expected to make political speeches in Vermont if congress adjourned before primaries are held there. He may also speak in some of the other New England states.

CONDUCTOR FOGG WAS BADLY HURT

His Head Came in Contact With Pole

200TH ANNIVERSARY OF HILLSIDE CHURCH

Observed With Special Service Yesterday

Albert Fogg, aged 28 years of Wakefield, N. H., who is employed as a conductor by the Bay State Street Railway Co., was badly injured last night, when his head struck one of the trolley poles at Belle Grove on the Lowell and Lawrence division. No one on the car saw the accident and the first intimation the passengers had that anything was wrong was when the conductor lurched forward and fell into the car.

Fogg was walking along the running board of the car at the time and there is little doubt that he leaped too far off the running board and when his head came in contact with the pole he was thrown back into the car.

When picked up by passengers it was found that his head was badly injured. A physician who was on the car at the time attended Fogg. He was later placed aboard a Lowell-bound car and the ambulance station notified. The ambulance met the car at Merrimack square and the injured man was taken to St. John's hospital, where it was found he was suffering from concussion of the brain.

Inquiry at St. John's hospital at the time of going to press this afternoon brought forth the information that Conductor Fogg was resting comfortably and that in all probability he will recover.

SILAS W. COBURN

106 YEARS OLD

WOMAN OBSERVED ANNIVERSARY OF HER BIRTH TODAY

WORCESTER, Aug. 26.—Surrounded by every comfort in the pretty home of Mrs. Annie H. Vane at 8 Boynton street, Worcester, Mrs. Louisa Waterman Carpenter today quietly observed the 106th anniversary of her birth.

Mrs. Carpenter was born in the old Waterman homestead at Old Warwick, N. H., on Aug. 8, 1806, the daughter of John R. and Isabella Warner Waterman. She was one of eight children, but one other of whom, Mrs. Isabella W. Coburn, is now living. Mrs. Coburn is now 94 years old and is a resident of Boston, Cal.

Mrs. Carpenter's direct ancestors were prominent in the revolution, her great-grandfather, Col. Benoni Waterman, and her grandfather, Col. John Waterman, having been members of the Continental army. Mrs. Carpenter can trace her ancestry back to Rollo, the founder of Normandy, and her lineage also includes several of England's kings and queens, Oliver Cromwell and Roger Williams.

Mrs. Carpenter married Ebenezer Carpenter, a bank commissioner of the state of Rhode Island. She was the mother of 12 children, four of whom still survive. They are Ebenezer and Philip M. Carpenter, Boston business men; Mrs. Sarah Ford of Minneapolis, and Miss Isabella Carpenter, who lives with her mother. There are many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mrs. Carpenter has lived in Providence, Attleboro and Brookline. She attended the Harvard Congregational church in Brookline when the Rev. Eben Thomas was its pastor.

Mrs. Carpenter retains remarkable possession of her faculties. She likes nothing better than to talk of Revolutionary stories told her by her grandfather when she was a child at Old Warwick.

REV. PAUL DRAKE

DELIVERED AN ADDRESS ON THE SOUTH COMMON

Rev. Paul Harris Drake, formerly of the University church in Beverly, was the speaker at an Eton-Giovannitti protest meeting held on the South common, this city, yesterday afternoon. There were about a thousand people present and they all listened attentively to the address of the speaker.

In the course of his remarks he briefly rehearsed the causes of the Lawrence strike.

Mr. Drake said he had talked with the two men and said they were well educated and as intelligent gentlemen as he ever had the pleasure to meet.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Frederick L. Carpenter, charged with the murder of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jennie S. Goss, who died at Cambridge, Mass., last night, pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging the slaying of $30,000 when given a hearing before Judge Dana in the superior court today. He was held in $50,000 bonds for trial.

Carpenter is charged with disposing of thirty American Bell Telephone 21000 bonds belonging to the estate of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jennie S. Goss, who died at Cambridge, Mass., last night, pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging the slaying of $30,000 when given a hearing before Judge Dana in the superior court today. NAPOLEON'S IDEAL WOMAN

The great Napoleon, in response to a question once asked by a lady, replied: "My ideal woman is not the beautiful society belle or the butterfly of fashion, but the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation of health, with stalwart children by her side."

Thousands of middle-aged American women today owe their health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that famous remedy for female ills, which has carried more women safely through the natural changes of her life, than any other remedy the world has ever known. If you are ill, it will pay you to try it.

AVIATOR WINS HARD BATTLE BY SHOWING GREAT SKILL

McGee Caught in Bad Air Current—Machine Stands Still Over Boston Harbor

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Fighting for his life, 1000 feet in the air, over Boston harbor, Jack McGee, the Pawtucket aviator, yesterday had an experience that he will not forget and the memory of which will thrill for many a day the thousands of picture seekers on boats and islands who helplessly watched his machine buffeted by the wind until he was driven almost to sea before he was able to get out of the treacherous air current.

The same man who a few days ago created a sensation by his flight over Revere beach is fortunate in having rare nerve and remarkable control for the skill with which he manipulated his plane and the fact that his engine never missed is all that saved him from disaster.

It was not long ago that McGee was taking lessons at the Naughton aviation field and when notified that he could take a little flyer on his own hook, he not only left the ground and the field behind but paid a visit to Revere beach, a flight sufficient for a veteran aviator.

Warned of Bad Conditions
McGee's Revere flight was a triumph for him, and setting worlds to conquer he quickly made plans to fly from Saugus to Newport, it being his intention to show the folks back home that he was a real flyer.

Seeing a letter from Mayor Fitzgerald addressed to Hon. Patrick J. Boyle, Newport's executive, he completed his plans early yesterday and after some over his machine awaited a good opportunity to leave the field at Saugus.

Though advised that the time was not propitious on account of the wind, the youthful flyer climbed into his seat at 5:15 in the afternoon and gave the word to the mechanics to turn over the propellers. The engine picked up immediately and with a wave of his hand he was off. The machine took the air quickly and after a circuit of the grounds, McGee headed toward Winthrop, to cross the harbor.

He had barely got over the water when he felt the full force of the wind, but with all power on he drove the machine head-on, but could not seem to make any headway. The biplane shivered under the force of the engine and the wind, and McGee tried to turn to that he failed, and though realizing that he was not making much, if any, headway, it was not until he looked down toward the water that he found he was drifting.

It did not take him long to realize that his engine was helpless against the force of the wind and it was then that the people on the water saw for the first time an airplane practically standing still in the air. To spectators it appeared as if the machine were about to drop and every second they expected to see it come crashing to the surface of the harbor.

Life Saved by Skill
For many minutes McGee fought to make headway, but it was soon apparent that he was caught in a bad stretch of air. He tried back after back, but this resulted in his drifting faster and it was not long before he began to nose over the left and towards the bay. Looking down he saw Boston light and it was not until he was a considerable distance beyond the famous beacon that he saw any chance of making land.

By hard work with the planes and the engine working perfectly, he succeeded in heading his machine due west and in a short time passed over the field at Saugus. Instead of descending then he thought that he might be able to continue and he looked for the Blue Hill observatory. He had climbed steadily and when nearing the Blue Hills was at least 1000 feet up.

It was then getting dark and the air high about was cold. So much time had been lost in the desperate struggle over the harbor that McGee was then forced to decide quickly whether he would come down or chance a night ride with his machine on the other end of the harbor and alight in a place to land.

Lands at Revere Track
McGee remembered the race track at Revere and decided to make a landing there. Shutting off his power, he veered until he was within a few hundred feet of the ground and setting his bearings, he circled the famous track once and then alighted in the oval inside the track at 6:50 p. m. The landing was perfect and machine and operator did not even get a jolting on the ground.

The aviator's appearance high above the track and attracted the attention of the trotting horsemasters gathered there for the annual circuit meeting this week, and on reaching the ground he was surrounded by many, who assisted him in moving the machine to a safe spot.

He went immediately to the Revere hotel and said that both he and his machine had come through all

A snack is a grown-up nibble; less than a meal, more than a bite.

It fits in at picnics and fishing trips; helps entertain the unexpected visitor.

It takes two to make a snack—KELLOGG'S TOASTED WHEAT BISCUIT and almost anything else.

The biscuit and milk or cream—the original snack;

The biscuit and sardines—snappy and savory;

The biscuit and cheese,—cooked cheese or just cheese—fine;

The biscuit and fruit—delicious;

The biscuit and eggs—a regular stand-by;

The biscuit smothered in creamed codfish—nothing tastier.

EUGENE V. DEBS ACCEPTS THE NOMINATION OF SOCIALIST PARTY

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 26.—In marked contrast to the ostentatious ceremonies practiced by other political parties the socialist presidential nominee, Eugene V. Debs, today accepted his nomination by simply informing the newspapers that they were at liberty to print his address of acceptance which he had sent them in printed form.

No committee called on Debs and there was an entire lack of ceremony of any kind.

The extreme simplicity of the occasion was marked further by Debs' preparations for a trip to Terzaghi, Minn., where he will speak tomorrow night.

GIRLS DROWNED MOTOR BOAT WAS HIT BY A STEAMER

FAIRHAVEN, Vt., Aug. 26.—Two young women, Miss Mary Whitman of Troy, N. Y., and Miss Margaret Rich of New York city, were drowned in Lake Champlain Saturday night, when a motorboat in which they were riding with two young men companions collided with the lake steamer A. B. Cook.

The young men, William Eushee and Robert Edwards of this town, made a desperate attempt to save their companions.

They succeeded in freeing Miss Whitman from beneath the boat, but not until she was nearly exhausted. After assisting her to hang on to the up-turned bottom of the boat, they tried to free Miss Rich, who was more firmly held beneath the craft. At a moment when they thought they had nearly succeeded, the boat sank.

Miss Richer was carried to the bottom with it, and Miss Whitman, with little strength left, was helpless without support.

Eushee and Edwards could do no more for Miss Richer, but they succeeded again in rescuing Miss Whitman and started to take her to shore. After they had gone some distance they found they were carrying a lifeless burden.

It was Sunday Saturday night and the motorboat party had umbrellas up for protection.

It is believed this fact accounts for their not having noticed the approach of the lake steamer.

REV. F. E. COBURN OCCUPIED THE PULPIT

At First Baptist Church
Yesterday

The pulpit at the First Baptist church yesterday was occupied by Rev. Fred Eugene Coburn, a Lowell boy. Mr. Coburn was ordained in the First Baptist church and it gave him great pleasure to be at home again. His sermon in the evening was from John 13:11. "Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you."

"There is a difference, he said, between companionship and friendship. It was not until these disciples had been with Him for about three years, that Jesus called them friends. Many have friends who are not his friends, but a brother, while Jesus' friendship circle was small, it was still very broad. Through the group we met diverse characters, and different classes and conditions represented. "Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you."

"To know Jesus Christ is to have courage to walk with him, to be in a purer, higher atmosphere, to know Him is to find the peace of an unshakable sky."

It is not very hard to do what Jesus Christ commands. First of all, the plain duty of us all is to believe Jesus second, it is to trust Him. And lastly, it is to do whatsoever he may command us, in life.

It will take years for us to change from companionship to friendship. We must come to get acquainted with Jesus; then we must enter into his service, then into His fellowship; and we must come to love him, and be devoted unto Him.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of Waverly lodge, Sons of St. George was held in Odd Fellows hall in Middlesex street Saturday night. There was a good-sized attendance and considerable routine business was transacted. President Harry L. Francis occupied the chair. The question of celebrating the 50th anniversary of the lodge was discussed and the following general committee was named to take charge of the affair:

John W. Foster, Frank Orrell, Thos. Gardner, Willie H. Bowles, H. J. Hunsell, Fred Potter, John Barker, John Orrell, George Humphries, George Galt, Harry L. Francis, John W. Andrews, and N. W. Matthews, Jr. This committee were given full power to make all arrangements for the celebration.

After the lodge business the committee met and made preliminary plans. P. P. John W. Foster was chosen chairman of the committee and P. P. John Barker, secretary. It was decided to observe the anniversary with a supper and concert to be held on Saturday evening, Nov. 2, and the Odd Fellows banquet and encampment halls have already been engaged. It is expected that the committee in any way they can so that this year's anniversary may equal, if not surpass, the good time of 1911. The sub-committee appointed were: Entertainment, Frank L.

TOURNAINE GUESTS NEAR DINNERLESS BECAUSE OF DISCHARGE OF COOK

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—The score of more of distinguished visitors to Boston who are guests at the Hotel Touraine, narrowly escaped going dinnerless yesterday when, for a time a strike of all the cooks and waiters was threatened. The temporary difference was finally settled by Assistant Manager Staples after a telephone conference with Organizer Blochinger of the International Hotel Workers' union, but not before some of the party had had a fine young appetite.

This occurrence at the Touraine is thought to be the precursor of a situation similar to that which held in New York during the trouble with the waiters there. The union leaders declare that they are going to force the hotel managers of Boston into an agreement which will prevent the summary discharge of employees and if necessary a simultaneous strike in all hotels will be ordered.

The trouble at the Touraine arose over the discharge by a chef of a cook who is alleged to "have reported five minutes late for duty."

The manager was out of town, and Assistant Manager Staples after a few minutes' talk, when told that his employees would strike at once, restored the cook to his position.

Tomorrow night there will be a general meeting of the union and Friday night there will be another, at which the agreement will be discussed.

NORTH CHELMSFORD

The sessions at the high school will open on Monday 3 and a large number of pupils is expected to enroll.

Mr. Clarence H. Cook of New York city is a guest of his sister, Mrs. Arthur W. Frisbey, he having just returned to this country from an extended trip to Italy and Germany.

GUIDED BY DREAM MAN FOUND BODY

Of Young Woman Who Was Drowned

MEREDITH, N. H., Aug. 26.—The body of Miss Blanche Sinclair, the student at the Wheelock School for Kindergarten Teachers in Boston, who was drowned in Lake Winnepesaukee Aug. 9, was found yesterday morning by John Blake, who says he was guided by a dream.

Blake woke at 4 o'clock yesterday morning and told his wife that he had dreamed of discovering the body of the missing girl. He got up, dressed, and on his way to his power boat met Assistant Policeman Adrian Williams, who was on duty near the lock.

Blake asked Williams to go with him, and within a half hour after they reached the place where her boat was found they discovered the body of Miss Sinclair floating.

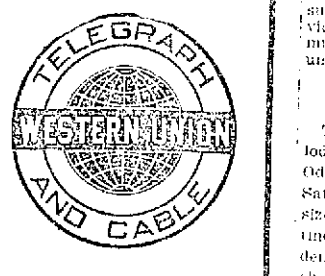

Miss Sinclair, who was 18 years old, was spending her vacation here in the Shaw cottage with Miss Marietta Nute of Dorchester, Mass. Friday afternoon, Aug. 9, Miss Nute and Miss Morton, another young friend, came to Meredith, leaving Miss Sinclair to prepare supper. When they returned to camp Miss Sinclair was missing and a small steel boat was also gone.

The boat was found early in the night floating loose against the shore a little more than a mile from Meredith wharf, and about one and one-half miles from the Shaw cottage. A general alarm was given and the Meredith fire companies and citizens searched the shore through the night.

Next morning search of the lake was begun under the direction of Police-man John Morrison. An uncle of Miss Sinclair, M. E. Owen of Boston, came to aid in the search and a diver was summoned. Later many charges of dynamite were exploded in the vicinity where the body was thought to be.

Miss Sinclair's mother is now living in Manchester, N. H., but the family came recently from Clinton, N. Y. Her uncle, M. E. Owen, was notified of the finding the body.

NEW ORGANIZATION OF THE WEAVERS

Is Being Formed in New
Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 26.—The seventh week of the weavers' strike in this city opened yesterday with continued unsettled conditions but with possible clearing.

No severe storms have been reported in any section and there is a large area of high barometric pressure which is due to arrive here after Labor Day.

The general feeling in this city tonight is that if the mills open up after Labor Day that there would be enough operatives to work to allow them to run and that any way, the strike situation would work out by the middle of this week into something definite.

The attitude of the mills and the weavers is the same as at the start on the grading system. The executive committee members state that the Fall River Weavers' Union is to send a loan of $10,000 here Wednesday. Instructions have been sent to the executive board by the National Federation of Cloth Weavers that six delegates from the Weavers' union be sent out immediately throughout the country to solicit contributions.

It is reported that the treasurers of all the unions are being hit rather hard on account of the New Bedford strike. In round figures it is known that the unions have expended about $45,000. The Weavers' union has not up to date received the financial assistance that it expected. An official of the Weavers' union stated today that he had heard that the United Textile Workers were working along the lines that had once before been started to come to New Bedford and organize a Weavers' Union to be affiliated with the United Textile Workers of America, with which the present weavers' organization is not. It is reported that the strikers of this movement think that now would be a good time to undertake such a movement, as many of the weavers here are ready to go to work, being dissatisfied with the conduct of the strike. The claim is made that all the textile unions affiliated with the I. T. W. that better conditions could be secured for the mill workers, and that in case of a strike there would be united action, that could secure united support from the other textile unions throughout the country, and not as at the present time, when the unions are working independently and with indifferent success.

GIRL SHOT

HER BROTHER ACCIDENTALLY
DISCHARGED REVOLVER

HOLBROOK, Aug. 26.—Margaret Brewster, aged 12, received the contents of a shotgun in her arm, neck and face yesterday afternoon in a barn in the rear of the Brewster residence on Center street.

Her father, Joseph Brewster, had a gun in the barn which he kept loaded to shoot rats which were carrying away his chickens. His son Wilbur, 10 years old, and Margaret went out to the barn to play, and the young fellow, it is said, picked the gun up and accidentally pulled the trigger. The shot first struck a piece of iron on a bench and, glancing off, struck the girl. Dr. Frank C. Granger of Randolph was called and tried to pick out the shattered shot, but was obliged to send the girl to the Massachusetts General hospital in Boston where the X ray will be employed to determine where the shot is located.

The gun was heavily loaded with fine shot.

Mr. Brewster believed he kept the gun where his children would not be able to reach it.

THE TYPO UNION

DENOUNCES THE METHOD OF
COAL DEALERS

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Charging that the coal dealers of Boston and the United States are the direct cause of untold suffering by their methods of raising the price of coal, the Boston Typographical union at its meeting yesterday afternoon inaugurated a campaign to have the legislature fix a maximum price for coal in Massachusetts.

The methods of the local coal dealers are denounced, as was their declaration that the rise in price of coal was due to the action of the labor unions themselves. The union declared in favor of government ownership of all coal mines and called upon all unions and fraternal organizations to join the movement and petition the legislature.

A set of resolutions was drawn up expressing the attitude of the union as follows:

"Resolved, We, the members of Boston Typographical Union No. 12, in regular session, do hereby condemn the coal dealers of Greater Boston for their selfish greed, and do it further resolve, that we resent the imputation against labor for the said increase, and do it further resolve, that the Boston Typographical Union in regular session urges its sister unions and fraternities to petition the general court of Massachusetts to fix a maximum price for coal."

It is further resolved, that we favor the government ownership of the coal business of the United States.

"Be it further resolved, that copies of these resolutions be printed and distributed to the representatives of the general court and the members of congress from Massachusetts."

WOMAN KILLED SON ASSAULTED

Robbery Was the Motive
of Crime

WEST ENFIELD, Me., Aug. 26.—When Frank Jacoby, a Russian Pole, employed in the pulp mill here as a coal heaver, came back from a berrying trip yesterday afternoon he found the door of his little cottage locked.

He climbed in a window and on the bed found the body of his wife and upon the floor that of his 5-year-old son.

The woman had evidently been killed with a single blow upon the head while asleep. One blow on the head had also been inflicted upon the child, but he was alive.

A trunk in the room had been broken open and $25 in money and a gold ring stolen.

A Pole whose Americanized name is Charlie Smith, is looked upon charged with the murder. Smith, who has been in this country only a short time, was a boarder in the Jacoby family.

Yesterday morning in the presence of Smith, Jacoby told his wife, he says, that she had better put the money in the trunk, which she did. Smith seeing her.

After breakfast Smith took his bicycle and went to work for some apples, while Jacoby and another boarder went berrying.

Smith was seen to come back early in the afternoon, it is alleged, and later he went to the house of John Dosey, about half a mile away, and told a woman and child had been killed at West Enfield. It is alleged.

Constable J. E. Lawrence arrested Smith and notified Sheriff T. H. White and County Atty. George E. Thompson, who arrived here late last night and will take Smith to Bangor today.

Search of the house revealed the heavy sack which is claimed was used to commit the crime.

Last night it was said the boy had a chance for recovery.

CUT HIS THROAT

LAWRENCE MAN WAS DESPONDENT FOR SOME TIME

LAWRENCE, Aug. 26.—Harry Coolbrick, 32, of 122 Spruce street, was sitting on the front steps of the house with his brother yesterday afternoon. He was despondent and his brother tried to cheer him.

Suddenly Coolbrick rose and went up stairs. After a while his brother, alarmed that he did not come down, went up to investigate. He found his brother lying dead in a pool of blood in the bathroom, his throat cut from ear to ear, and a razor at his side.

On the washstand was a note, scribbled hastily on a bit of paper: "I am sorry for my foolish act. I said, 'Forgive me.' Take care of mother."

Coolbrick had been in ill health for some time.

Mr. John J. Sloan of this city and Miss Nellie McCullough of Granville were married Sunday afternoon by Rev. Edmund P. S. Hall of St. John's church in North Chelmsford.

A reception was held by the couple at the home of the bride, following the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and on their return will receive their friends at their home at 28 Mill street.

Mr. James Freer and Miss Caroline Pilecomb, both of Haverhill, were married yesterday afternoon by Rev. J. M. Craig of the First Presbyterian church, at the rectory, 3 Belmont street. Mr. and Mrs. Freer will live at 28 1/2 South Street, Haverhill, on their return from a wedding trip.

Mr. Volte Sulig and Mrs. Grace M. Higgins, both of this city, were united in marriage yesterday by Rev. N. W. Matthews.

GOV. WILSON

TAKES PART IN DISCUSSION OF CAMPAIGN PLANS

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—A general plan for the personal campaign of Gov. Wilson was discussed at the democratic conference today which was attended by Gov. Wilson, Vice Chairman McAdoo, Treasurer Wells and National Committeemen Daniels and Robert E. Ewing.

Gov. Wilson does not contemplate any extended stumping tour and will make only a few speeches in the larger cities.

$1,000,000 LOSS

CAUSED BY THE STRIKE IN NEW BEDFORD

NEW BEDFORD, Aug. 26.—The weavers' strike for the abolition of the grading system of payment, which has made idle thousands of operatives and has closed twelve cotton cloth mills, entered its seventh week today. Prospects of a settlement were more encouraging than for several weeks and the idle employees expressed the hope that they would return to work within two weeks.

The strikers and locked out workers were encouraged by the statement of Walter H. Langshaw, agent of the Dartmouth mills, that he favored reopening the mills at a reasonably early date.

It was estimated that the strike has caused a loss of approximately $1,000,000. Of the 13,000 workers made idle when the mills were closed it is said that several thousand have sought employment elsewhere. Strike benefits amounting $50,000 have been paid by the unions.

BRITISH SHIP PORT PATRICK EXPERIENCED ROUGH VOYAGE

Two Seamen Swept Overboard by
Monster Wave and the Mate
Died of Heart Disease

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—The British ship Port Patrick from New York has reached Adelaide, Australia, minus her mate, two seamen, a suit of sails and the ship's stores. The vessel was wrecked up and as the ship, free from the helm rolled into the trough of the sea, the wind stripped her upper canvas and reduced the rest to ribbons. A temporary steering gear rescued her for the time and with makeshift sails she weathered gale after gale until the Australian coast was reached. The mate died of heart disease.

THREE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Bank Man's Car Skids
at Worcester

WORCESTER, Aug. 26.—A large touring car, owned and operated by Clarence A. Evans of 24 Dayton street, vice president of the Merchants' National bank of Worcester, skidded at Franklin square yesterday, and jumping the curb, crashed into a building at the corner of Main and Southbridge streets, pinning three people to the wall.

It narrowly missed striking a number of persons waiting at the square for suburban cars.

The injured are: Louis Bricklin, aged 15, and his five-year-old daughter, Martha, of 41 Columbia street; Hyura Hobbitt of 41 Bowdoin street, and Mrs. Evans.

Mrs. Evans and her three-year-old daughter, Barton, were thrown over the side of the car as it struck the curb, while the Bricklins and Hobbitt were pinned between the car and the building. Mrs. Evans escaped with a few minor injuries, while her son received only a shaking up.

Mr. Bricklin was the most severely injured. His body was cut from the knee to the waist line, his thigh was torn, and it was feared that he would bleed to death before the City hospital was reached. He also received injuries about the body.

Hobbitt was knocked unconscious, and suffered a severe scalp wound and possible internal injuries.

The Bricklin girl was bruised about the body. She was taken home, while her father and Hobbitt were rushed to the hospital, where it was reported last night they will probably recover.

According to the story told the police, Evans was driving along Main street and was turning into Southbridge street when the auto skidded after striking a frog in the car tracks. The injured were looking in the opposite direction and were caught between the auto and the building. The force of the blow smashed a cellar window 20 feet away from where the auto struck.

Mr. Evans said tonight that his car was traveling slowly and that because of the wet pavements the accident could not be avoided.

On both sides of the river many buildings were damaged by lightning. In St. Louis several church steeples were demolished and several buildings destroyed.

Near De Soto four members of the family of Jefferson Ruhllo, a road worker, were killed when lightning struck the tent in which they were living. Ruhllo, his wife, a 16-year-old daughter and a baby girl were instantly killed. A grown son escaped death, but was stunned and severely burned.

INJURIES FATAL

MAN WAS HURT WHEN AUTO
TURNED TURTLE

HAVERHILL, Aug. 26.—Roy G. White, 46 years old, died suddenly last night of internal injuries received in an automobile accident two weeks ago today. White, with two companions, was returning from Lawrence, when his machine skidded and plunged off the state highway just above the baseball grounds on River street. When the machine turned turtle, White, who had been driving, was pinned under the wreckage and was later taken home by his two companions in another machine and the doctors said that he had a broken left rib.

Mr. White was apparently improving rapidly, but about 6 last night he was taken suddenly ill and died four hours later. Medical Examiner Crofton was called and ordered an autopsy performed.

White lived on Currier avenue and leaves a wife and two children. He had been living in Haverhill about six months, having previously resided in Manchester, N. H.

December 16, 1773

A LITTLE AFFAIR OCCURRED IN NEW ENGLAND
THAT WENT DOWN IN HISTORY AS

The Boston Tea Party

"There's a Reason"

An English King had told his subject colonists that if they drank tea they must pay a tax on it—an unjust tax that made revenue, not for Americans but for Englishmen.

It was a tax that increased the high cost of living of those days—and our forefathers went to the wharf where the tea ships were moored, split open the tea chests and spilled their contents into Boston Harbor, thus producing the largest and most expensive bowl of tea the world has even seen.

Today

IS REPEATED PRACTICALLY THE SAME THING.

The Brazilian Coffee Trust, operated by foreign money kings, working outside the control of our National Anti-trust laws, have imposed a tax upon American Citizens which has raised the price of even the cheapest grade of coffee from 45c to 25c per lb.

During three past years this trust has taken Hundreds of Millions of Dollars from the pockets of American Citizens

It has given Brazil 85 Millions of Dollars with which to retire her National Bonds.

It has given Brazil 10 Millions of Dollars to pay interest on her bonds.

It has given Brazil a "bought and paid for" supply of coffee on hand worth 90 Millions of Dollars and—

It has paid millions upon millions of profit into the coffers of the Foreign Money Kings, and yet the coffee people report a falling off in sales of about 200 million pounds in the past two years.

Why this Heavy Reduction?

Until recently the ever increasing army of Postum users, thought only of health as a "reason" for quitting coffee. Now Economy is another "reason." A third "reason," Improved Flavor, has come in with prepared instantly by placing a spoonful in a cup and pouring hot water over it.

This presents a delicious beverage much resembling high grade Java in color and taste, but absolutely pure and free from the coffee drug "caffeine" or any other harmful ingredient.

Health, convenience, flavor and economy have induced people to change from coffee to Postum, then follows better health, freedom from headache, indigestion, nervousness and other coffee ills.

The Result—

In hundreds of thousands of American homes today, coffee is forgotten and Postum has become the regular table beverage. It is an American drink made by Americans from American products.

A 100-cup tin Instant Postum, 50c, (equals 1-2c per cup), at Grocers. (Smaller tins at 30c.) Regular Postum, large package, (must be boiled 15 minutes), 25c.

"THERE'S A REASON"

Coffee averages about double that cost.

5-cup free sample of Instant Postum sent for 2-cent stamp for postage.

LOEB IS TO TESTIFY ABOUT CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Colonel Roosevelt Explains His Attitude Toward Standard Oil Company

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 26.—What Col. Roosevelt knew about the case of John D. Archbold's alleged $100,000 contribution to the republican campaign fund in 1904, what President Roosevelt said to the late E. H. Harriman and what Mr. Harriman said to Col. Roosevelt about Harriman's $260,000 contribution are subjects concerning which William T. Loeb, Jr., formerly Roosevelt's private secretary, is prepared to testify before the senate committee investigating campaign contributions according to an announcement made here today by Roosevelt. Col. Roosevelt said he was greatly pleased at the prospect of Mr. Loeb taking the stand before the committee. "Which ever has asked Loeb to testify," Roosevelt declared, "I am more than pleased that the committee chooses to do so."

MRS. GERVAIS

WELL KNOWN WOMAN PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

Mrs. Victoria Gervais, wife of Mr. Hermias Gervais, passed away at St. John's hospital at 8:15 last night after a very brief illness. Mrs. Gervais was taken from her home to the hospital Friday where an operation was performed, and it was expected that she would recover. Saturday and yesterday she appeared to be greatly improved, but last evening weakness set in and to her husband, who was at her bedside, and was most attentive to her during her illness, she expressed fear that she would not recover. Mrs. Gervais was a woman of beautiful character, a devoted wife, and one of the most lovable persons to meet. Always of a most pleasant disposition, glad to meet and make new friends, and never forgetting her old acquaintances, she endeavored herself to all who knew her. She was the daughter of David Prudhomme, who is survived by a husband, three sisters, Mrs. Adelbert Audette, Mrs. Fred Gilman and Miss Laura Prudhomme, as well as two brothers, Joseph and Charles Prudhomme of this city. She lived at 333 Chestnut street.

The funeral will take place Wednesday morning and high mass of requiem will be celebrated at Notre Dame de Lourdes church at 9 o'clock. Undertaker Archambault in charge.

WILL NOT RUN

STOKES OUT OF THE FIGHT FOR MAYOR

STAMFORD, Conn., Aug. 26.—Jas. Phelps Stokes, millionaire philanthropist and socialist will not run for mayor of Stamford on the socialist ticket this fall as had been rumored. He had been nominated for that office. Today he formally withdrew because it had been definitely settled that Stokes does not live in this town. His home is on Carleton island which presumably was a part of Stamford. The question of residence had been raised and his personal counsel, Edwin Schofield, gave him an opinion that the city lines do not embrace Carleton island.

REYES NOT SERIOUSLY INJURED

LAURENS, P.R., Aug. 26.—President Rafael Reyes of Columbia is not expected to suffer serious complications as a result of the automobile accident in which he and his daughter were injured near here on Saturday. He passed a most restless night, owing to the pain from a severely fractured rib which had caused internal lacerations.

most favorable conditions and was from the start a great success. The party started from the post office at 9 o'clock Sunday morning in Trull's big auto-truck and began the long ride to Revere.

At Nahant a big dinner was served and many witty speeches were listened to. The party then returned to the shore and proceeded to make the rounds of all the attractions, doing the beach yard from one end to the other. The big time of all was held in "The Pit" into which the whole crowd of Weehawkins piled at once and things went lively for some time.

GIRL MUSICIANS

WERE INJURED BY COLLAPSE OF BUILDING

HAVERHILL, Aug. 26.—Miss Ruth Reddy and Miss Mary Furr, both 18 years old and residents of Peabody, were injured yesterday by the collapse of a building on a new building on Merrimack street. The girls, who are members of the orchestra at a local theatre, were on their way to the theatre when a gust loosened the stanchions. Several planks fell on the girls. Both were rendered unconscious. They were treated in the dressing room of the theatre and taken home.

POST OFFICES

WILL BE CLOSED ON SUNDAYS HEREAFTER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—All first and second class postoffices will be closed on Sundays as a result of one provision of the new postal appropriation bill passed by congress and signed by President Taft.

Every important city in the United States is affected. Hereafter only special delivery letters will pass through on that day and no mail will be placed in lock boxes.

Post offices in several cities have been closed Sundays heretofore. The postmaster general has permitted that a regulation where it was evident that local sentiment demanded it. The closing is now compelled by law.

THE O. M. I. CADETS ARE READY FOR CAMP

The Start Will be Made Tomorrow

The O. M. I. Cadets will go to camp tomorrow and will be in an ideal place for the annual outing and 150 boys will sleep under the tents tomorrow night. It is going to be the greatest outing the young soldiers ever had, and during the week there will be thousands of visitors to the grove. A great program to entertain the Cadets has been arranged and every preparation has been made for their comfort. Dr. William Collins will go to camp with the boys and there will be four trained nurses on duty night and day. The meals served will be most substantial and the boys will have a chance to enjoy swimming, racing, boating and baseball.

ANNUAL OUTING

OF MEMBERS OF COURT ST. PAUL, C. O. F.

The first annual outing of the members of Court St. Paul, C. O. F., was held yesterday afternoon at Daisie's farm, Dracut, and was largely attended. The weather was ideal for such an event and many took advantage to spend the day among the beautiful places of the farm of Mr. Daisie.

A very appetizing dinner was served in the open air, the piece de resistance being roast pig and delicious liquid refreshments were passed.

Immediately after the meal a varied musical program was rendered and in the latter part of the afternoon a number of amusing races were run off, the participants being the small boys, ranging in age from 2 to 8 years, who accompanied their parents.

The event was in the hands of Mr. Arthur Lavole, who was ably assisted by a large committee and the affair was pronounced the best ever. It was quite late when the party broke up, all congratulating the organizers for the success of the affair.

DIAMOND NOTES

"Twas a great day for the Grays.

That second game was one of the best of the season.

While we are at Brockton today and tomorrow, Lawrence will entertain Worcester at Riverside park. As Jesse still thinks he has a chance, our possibilities look better than ever.

PRICES DROPPED

IN THE LATE DEALINGS IN THE MARKET TODAY

Reading Ruled a Point Below the Best—Other Prominent Stocks Were Also Below Saturday's Close

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Canadian Pacific, the coppers and some obscure specialties displayed varying degrees of strength at the opening of today's market. Canadian Pacific gained 1 1/2 with substantial fractional advances in Utah and Chino while some of the less active railway issues also opened above Saturday's close. Reading and Union Pacific were among the better known stocks that opened with small declines.

Coppers were the strong features of the first hour, railers showing a tendency to decline, with Canadian Pacific losing considerably more than its initial gain.

The financial community's pessimistic mood as shown in the early movement of stocks today was attributed to events at Washington. The signing of the Panama canal bill and the congressional deadlock have tended to further alienate public interest and that of professional traders as well. Pacifics and other railway shares of primary importance were distinctly heavy. Canadian Pacific fell over three points from its initial gain.

Only the coppers displayed any marked strength the result of reports of increased foreign demand. Business grew dull on the rally and prices eased off a trifle.

The market failed to waken from its stagnant state of the early afternoon. Fractional improvements being followed by renewed pressure.

The market closed irregular. Prices dropped in the late dealings. Reading ruled a point below the best, and other prominent stocks were also below Saturday's close.

AMERICAN AVIATOR WON

ST. MALO, France, Aug. 26.—Chas. T. Weymann, the American aviator, today won the principal event of the hydro-aerodrome meet, which started here Saturday.

Weymann, who flew in a monoplane, made the excellent time of one hour, 49 minutes for the distance of 145 kilometers (approximately 90 miles), one furlong from St. Malo to the Island of Jersey and return. The race was over the waters of the English channel.

GREAT SUCCESS
MADE BY A. E. O'HEIR
His New Store in Hurd Street Finished

It is with pleasure that we are able to announce to the public of this city and suburbs that one of the best and finest located buildings in this city is that owned by Albert E. O'Heir, the well known furniture dealer. The edifice was formerly the home of the Y. M. C. A. in Hurd street and was purchased by Mr. O'Heir who formerly occupied the Chalifoux building in Merrimack square which had to be vacated in order to make room for a new steel structure.

Twenty-one years ago Mr. O'Heir started in the furniture business in this city in a humble and unpretentious manner. He was then located in a very small store in Merrimack street. By honest and fair dealings and close attention to business, he has succeeded beyond his fondest hopes. He is one of Lowell's leading business men and he is to be congratulated on having established a prosperous business and of having become the owner of one of the largest and best located buildings given over exclusively to furniture, this side of Boston.

It is less than six months since Mr. O'Heir purchased this building, and it has been transformed into one of the most beautifully appointed furniture houses that one might wish to see. A visit to this store will be a revelation to the people of this city and suburbs, and those who have already seen it are showering congratulations on the owner for his business ability. In giving a brief description one can get some idea of what has been done for the benefit of the people looking for up-to-date and stylish furniture.

To begin with, a mammoth display window of two stories has been built out six feet, and lets a flood of light into the show rooms and at the same time adds to the appearance of the building. There is a pitch of several feet along Hurd street from Central so that people passing on Central street can look down into the show windows.

The gymnasium addition to the old Y. M. C. A. building has been used, giving a depth to the store of about 100 feet. The width of the building is 25 feet. As one enters the store from Hurd street one gets an impression of immensely which sticks as one goes through the place. From the entrance the stairway to the basement and the open well to the second floor permit a glimpse of three floors at one time.

The basement has been deepened by the building of a cement wall, 20 inches at the base and 16 inches at the top, underlying the old wall. Light comes into the basement on the east side from four windows.

The first floor gets light on all sides and is brightly finished. This floor and the second and third are finished with pearl gray walls and white trimmings. There is a fine metal ceiling for the first floor. The second floor has the same dimensions as the first, and there is one step from the front hall to the rear hall.

An Otis freight and passenger elevator with the best safety devices available has been installed for the five floors. All over the building, on every floor, are the steam radiators, and a Crawford boiler has been put in place in the basement. On the first floor, two offices of quartered oak, a private office and public office, are to be found.

Some of Mr. O'Heir's furniture has already arrived and the rest is to be found in the basement will be found refrigerators, plasma chairs and all kinds of modern furniture. Ranges, stoves and iron beds will be stored in the basement.

On the first floor will be a display of Crawford ranges, buffets and dining room furniture of all kinds. In the rear, on the floor of the former gymnasium, will be found one of the unique features of this store, a carpet and rug department. Not many furniture stores are able to show this on the street floor. A carpet rack capable of holding 200 rugs will be found in this department.

On the second floor will be found chamber furniture, brass and iron beds, dressers, chiffoniers, etc., library tables and parlor tables, bookcases, desks and den furniture.

On the third floor there will be all kinds of parlor furniture, fancy chairs and rockers.

The alterations on the buildings have been in progress since March. Edwards & Monahan have had charge of all the work. Henry Bourke was the architect. Welch Bros. had the contract for plumbing.

The grand opening of the store will take place as soon as all the furniture arrives. On Saturday four motor drays brought Crawford ranges from Water-town and paraded the city streets about noon. A motor truck filled with silk dress mattresses also arrived Saturday.

ABSOLUTE SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION

Two and One Half Story House, Slated Roof and About Four Thousand Square Feet of Land at No. 29 South Walker Street,

THURSDAY, AUGUST 29TH, AT 2.30 O'CLOCK

The house consists of nine rooms, bath, pantry and wash room, with set tubs. On the first floor, there is a large reception hall, parlor, dining room, sitting room, kitchen and pantry, and wash room with set tubs. On the next floor are four large, airy and well lighted chambers, sewing room, and bathroom. There is excellent closet room; lighted throughout with zinc, furnace heat, lock stairs, cemented cellar, good sized piazza and the house is in excellent condition, inside and out. The lot has a large frontage on South Walker street, with an area of about 4000 feet. It is all sanded, concreted around the house, and is all fenced in. This house has been built but a few years, and was built by the present owner by the day, and is practically as good today as the day it was finished. Could be made into a two-tenement house at small expense. The present owner has the plans.

Now, then, for someone who would like to locate in the Highlands here is your opportunity, as the sale will be absolute on Thursday next, to the highest bidder. The present owner is now living in Vermont, is in poor health, and has instructed me to sell the property and all the personal property.

Terms: $200 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off. The house will be open Wednesday, August 28th, from 2 to 4:30 o'clock. Morning of sale, from 10 o'clock to time of sale.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE SALE OF REAL ESTATE, WE SHALL OFFER FOR SALE ALL THE HOUSEHOLD FURNISHINGS.

The goods consist in part of an old-fashioned grandfather's clock, with wooden works; 2-piece parlor suit; old-fashioned black walnut bric-a-brac stand with mirror centre and marble top; parlor carpet, 3 odd chairs, sitting room carpet, 2 tables, pictures, black walnut bookcase, 2 tables, 2 old-fashioned chairs, black walnut dining room table with six leaves, 2 tables, 2 old-fashioned chairs, black walnut sideboard, silver service, lot of old china, crockery, etc., 2 chamber suites, black walnut wardrobe, odd chairs, pictures, 2 lawn mowers, 2 wheelbarrows, rakes, etc. Terms on personal property, cash. By order of
